Nicholas County Memories; People Houses and Lands; Santa Letters, Top News

In order to extend Christmas Greetings to readers who have indicated interest in my occasional contribution to the Mercury over the years, let us turn back say, about 65 years to a pre-Christmas event in Carlisle, namely, the Presbyterian Church Ladies Aid Society annual Cake Sale.

The cake sale was held just before Christmas, preferably on Saturday in order to accomodate the contributors and attract more customers.

The particular sale I have in mind was held in the Directors Room of the Deposit Bank, then located in the building adjacent to what is now Allie and Effie Clinkenbeard's Variety store.

To this sale the ladies of the church brought their own culinary pride and joy in the form of cookies, cakes, candies, and even dressed turkeys, chickens, ham and sausage.

It was a sight to see those beautiful cakes displayed on the tables by the committee who knew from experience just the kind of cake certain individuals would bring. There were angel foods, coconut layer, spice cakes, and chocalate cakes with rich thick chocolate icing, and prised above all, a two-layer jam cake with caramel icing. Some how or other I associate the name of Mrs. Meck Powell with one of there delicious cakes. My own mothers crisp doughnuts sprinkled with powdered sugar are also hard to forget. Mrs. Kate Kennedy was another distinctive contributor, and her specialty was candy; hickory nut brittle and delicious fondant cinnamon "Potatoes".

In addition to all these there were items from the farm donated by Mrs. Lou Letton, the Gore Sisters, Mrs. Talbert, and many others. The sale did not take long. The items were so attractive and appetizing that they were sold in short order. How do I know all this? I was there. I was the delivery boy, one of whose rewards was to sample the candies and cookies with the consent, of course, of the committee.

Time marches on. There are constant changes Cake mixes and icings may be found in cartons on the market shelves awaiting a quick mix by those too busy to bother otherwise. However let me say with out fear of successful contradiction, that in my experience as an eater of cake, none can possible compare with those delicious cakes mixed, baked, and donated to the annual Ladies Aid Christmas Cake Sale in Carlisle, "Away back when".

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year from Lewis P. Scott.

FARMERS GET $90,000 REFUND

Cash refunds totaling $90,000 have been distributed to farmers having Credit Life Insurance protection on their Federal Land Bank loans, advises Ron Fritz, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Maysville.

Many farmers in Mason, Fleming, Bracken, Lewis, Robertson and Nicholas Counties are among those who have received refund checks. This was made possible by the favorable mortality experience for the period from August 1, 1962 through July 31, 1963, says Mr. Fritz.
