Santa Letters

Dear Santa Clause,
My name is Carol Kathleen Smart. I am 4 years old. I have been a very good girl this year. My mommie is writing for me because I am too little. Please bring me a set of dishes and a doll and a set of table and chairs. Don't forget all my Mamaw's and Papaw's, and sister Donnita. Don't forget Mommie and Daddy and Uncle Tommy and Aunt Patsy and Betty and Estill.
Your little girl,

Dear Santa Claus,
We are two little boys who haven't been none too good or really too bad.
We saw your Saturday night in Carlisle so we thought it was about time we wrote you our letter
My name is Garry Layne and I am 5½ years old.
I would like to have for Christmas a Bulldoser, a truck and a gun, also a cowboy suit and hat. and now my brother wants to tell you what he would like for you to bring him.
My name is Darrel Dean and I am 5½ years old.
I would very much like for you to bring me a wrecker, bulldoser, a gun and also a cowboy suit and hat like Gary wants so we can play Cowboys.
We both would like 'a little candy, some tangerines and some nuts.
Bring Mommie and Daddy something, our Grandma's and Papaw's and all of our little friends everywhere.
We will leave you something to eat under our Christmas tree and our door unlocked for you.
Lots of Love
Garry and Darrell Gray.

Dear Santa,
We are Patrick and Greg Letcher, we are four and two years old, so our mommy is writing the letter. We have tried to be good. but sometimes we forget and then we are bad.
We would like a tractor set, some Army trucks, some gun and holsters, a filling station and Patrick who is 2 wants a baby doll as he just loves the ones in the Catalog.
Don't forget Mamaw, Pappy Granny and Grandaddy, our Cousin and our playmate Damon Booth.
We love you and we'll be waiting for you.
With love

KINGLY GIFTS
The gold, frankincense and myrrh presented to the Christ Child by the Three Kings were more than mere signs of wealth. Each had a special meaning.
The gold was a sign they accepted Him as their king; frankincense was given as a symbol of his deity; and myrrh as a prophecy of His death.

"Daddy says our family deserves the best and that's why we live electrically"

I can't remember when we didn't have electric appliances to help make the breakfast, do the clothes drying and things. But I guess Daddy remembers because he always insists on electric whenever he and Mom buy a new appliance.

I suppose he's gotten spoiled by all the good service electricity gives him. Like breakfasts in minutes—and plenty of hot water for his shower and shave — and those TV sports events he likes to watch. He's a worrier too, and he says he couldn't relax with anything else but safe, sure electric service.

Daddy says it's the best future for our family — all electric living.

New Joy To Young Hearts

You can bring happiness this Christmas to children in hospitals, orphanages and in the families of the unemployed by refurbishing the toys your own children have outgrown or no longer enjoy. In many communities, civic and fraternal groups have organized programs for this purpose.

The easiest way to make old toys is basically good condition look like new again is with colorful quality enamels, and here are some tips to help you do the job.

First and most important of all be sure you use only suitable enamels, particularly those that contain less than 1 per cent of lead. While most enamels meant for interior use contain no harmful ingredients, be sure to tell your paint dealer that you will be painting toys. He will sell you the right product. Under no circumstances use outside paint on toys or children's furniture.

Kids Like Color

Bear in mind that children prefer strong, bold colors, the primaries; red, yellow and blue, the bright secondaries; orange, green, purple. It takes a more sophisticated taste to enjoy pastel and less lively darker shades. They also like the shininess of gloss enamel.

Wash the toy with detergent to remove finger marks and other soil. If old finish is glossy, it should be dulled with sandpaper, so new finish will adhere better. Any cracks or holes should be filled with water putty or plastic wood which should be permitted to dry before sanding smooth.

Easy To Use

For small articles, you'll find self-spraying enamels in aerosol cans easiest and most practical to use. If more than one color is to be applied, protect the already painted areas with masking tape.

Child's Parents Are Gift Experts

Relatives should not hesitate to ask a child's parents what toys to buy the child for Christmas. This small gesture might prevent the child from receiving two or three toys of the same kind.

Parents, of course, will not suggest that relatives give their child a certain gift. They can, however, offer helpful advice, and they certainly are in the best position to know the type of gifts suitable to each child's skills and abilities.

This planning ahead can also make for goodwill from parents as well as children. Some parents, especially those with large families, are not too appreciative when relatives and friends bring children gifts which are noisemakers or "sets" of one kind or another that separate into one thousand and one pieces.

Relatives with only one or two children to buy gifts for, should consider the idea of combining their money to send one big gift, perhaps a tricycle or a bicycle, instead of separate toys that the child may not enjoy. Here, too, it would be wise to first consult the parents. They might be planning to ask Santa to bring a bicycle on Christmas Eve.

Yule Greenery Once Prohibited

Love, the poets say, is like the wild rose briar and friendship like the holly tree.

The similarity of love and wild rose briar may need proving but history records the use of holly as a symbol of goodwill and friendship even before the Christian era.

Holly wreaths, sprays and twigs were used, too, in various rites throughout much of Europe in those early days. And large quantities of the shiny green foliage and red berries were brought indoors to brighten the scene during drab winter days. But even before the Romans set foot on English shores, the druids were using holly in their own pagan rites.

Due to this pagan association, early Christian leaders opposed use of holly during the Christmas season. In fact, Christians were forbidden to decorate their homes with Christmas greenery during the mid-December Saturnalian revelries of the Roman Empire. Eventually, however, holly decorations became so well established and so popular they were given Christmas acceptance.

Accidents Mar Happy Holidays

For hundreds of Americans, it was not a Merry Christmas. For almost as many more, it will not be a happy New Year. Hundreds of families are plunged into grief by year-end holiday traffic accidents.

Don't let it happen to you. Never drive when overtired. Keep a window open when the automobile is in motion. Car heaters keep you warm, but they can also make you dangerously drowsy unless counteracted by fresh air.

Fight "festivity fatigue" with coffee. Take frequent coffee breaks on long motor trips.

Talk with others in the car. If alone, turn on the radio. Monotony can be a killer. Alcohol and gasoline make a lethal mixture.

NOW SEE HERE . . . Santa Claus, logged in his Christmas day dress, captures full attention of the younger set. They listen, patiently, for each wants his or her turn to tell Santa about the things most wanted under the Christmas tree.

Santa isn't the only one who is busy getting ready for Christmas. For weeks now, U.S. railroads have been making preparations to move the bulk of the more than 6,250,000,000 gift packages and greeting cards which the postal service will deliver during the holiday season.

For the railroads, this means numerous special crews and railroad equipment, just as the Post Office Department adds extra workers to keep the mail moving.

To handle the anticipated record load of Christmas mail, the railroads expect to expedite the equivalent of more than 62,000 standard-size mail cars, each 60 feet long. This railroad equipment available to the Post Office Department is sufficient to provide, every day, hundreds of all-mail trains. The railroads also transport thousands of cars of express and freight loaded with holiday merchandise.

The holiday deluge represents only part of the railroads' phenomenal year-round mail performance, in which they carry the bulk of the nation's approximately 64 billion pieces.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

Christmas seals, the seasonal reminder of the fight to stamp out tuberculosis, have been with us since 1904.

The idea was conceived by a Danish postal clerk in 1903, while mailing Christmas packages and letters. Einar Holboell mentioned the idea to his fellow workers and they thought it would be a great help in defraying the cost of fighting tuberculosis. The idea reached King Christian, who approved, and the image of Queen Louise appeared on the first seals in 1904.

A Danish-born American, Jacob Riis sold the idea to the American public in a 1907 magazine article and a Red Cross worker, Miss Emily Bissell, started the first American sales that year.
