

Two Tear-Up Local Jail

Two Nicholas County youths were transferred from the Nicholas County jail to the Bourbon County jail at Paris last Thursday after they had broken windows and ripped apart four beds in the local jail. Albert Booth said John Wesley Jones, 18, and Marlon Hopkins, 17, broke 10 panes in three windows of the jail, took parts of the broken beds and tried unsuccessfully to force open the door of their cell. Booth called Police Chief Eugene Kelly and Patrolmen Paul Cameron and Marlon Campbell, who aided in subduing the pair and placed them in a maximum security cell until their removal to Paris. Kelly said a six-foot club was found in their cell.

GIFT GIVING

While none can deny that there are commercial aspects to our modern-day celebration of Christmas, it must be remembered that it is done with emphasis on giving and sharing, rather than on being given. Gift giving is in keeping with the spirit of Christmas—if it is done with emphasis on giving and sharing, rather than on being given. REVOLUTIONARY new performance!

Baskeball they say, is a game for tall men. If such be the case, Kentucky is in for a long and hard season. The Wildcats probably have the smallest starting lineup of any major college power in the nation. Ironically, the only other Kentucky player who is taller than the Wildcats' or rather the lack of it, is Norman Anderson of La Grange, spent his senior year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Endicott of Midway. Mrs. Martin was found to be improving in health. Norman Anderson of La Grange, spent his senior year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Mattox and Mrs. and Mrs. John Glump.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Janie Hill at Smith Rees Chapel in Cynthiana on Sunday evening and Mrs. Emma Clay at the colored church in Millersburg on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ward of Paris spent Friday night and Saturday, with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mattox and children, Regina Mattox is ill with mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Snapp spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Russel Rutledge of Rose Hill.

Stevie Gaunce spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gaunce and son. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Burke have moved to the property of Miss Fleet Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Gaunce attended the Blue Grass Chapter of the W. F. W. at the blind at Whitesfort on Saturday.
