Christian Science

The Apostle Luke's inspiring account of the raising of the widow's son from the dead will be heard at Christian Science services Sunday. Subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Life."

The Golden Text is from Matthew (4: 4): "It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

Passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this selection (p. 547): "The Scriptures are very sacred. Our aim must be to have them understood spiritually, for only by this understanding can truth be gained." And continuing on the same page: "It is this spiritual perception of Scripture, which lifts humanity out of disease and death and inspires faith."

Ellisville Homemakers

The Ellisville Homemakers Club held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday, Jan. 2, at the home of Mrs. Ray Wagoner, Jr. with Mrs. Bobby Jones as cohostess.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Fred Jones. Roll was called and minutes of the last meeting were given.

For scripture, members repeated the 23rd Psalm and the Lord's Prayer.

We then adjourned for lunch.

In the afternoon Landscape notes were given by Mrs. Leonard Alexander.

The lesson on Needlepoint was given by Mrs. Rex Jones and Mrs. Jack Tincher, assisted by Mrs. Margie Wilson.

There were nine members, Mrs. Wilson and three children present.

We adjourned to meet with Mrs. Charles Ishmael at her home for the Feb. meeting.

Mrs. Bobby Jones—publicity.

Miranda Homemakers
by Mrs. Edgar Scott

The Miranda Club met at the home of Mrs. W. M. Kendall on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 9 We had 20 members and three visitors and Mrs. Margie Wilson present.

Mrs. George D. Scott our president, presided with the business. Mrs. W. B. Claypoole gave the devotional. Reports were given by various club chairmen.

Our lesson on Needlepoint was given by Mrs. Maurice King. She showed us how on a special canvas we could do needlework with yarn. Her work was very pretty and she stressed the work was easy, relaxing to the nerves and that the simple stitch done over and over never gets monotonous. There are three kinds of needlepoint stitches that are considered basic. They are the half cross, continental and diagonal stitch. Needlepoint is used as a cover for chairs, benches, rugs, tote bags and many other things. The finished article will last for generations.

Our club voted to visit the county infirmary and take a treat to the men there on Jan. 22.

Recreation was led by Mrs. Maurice King. Mrs. Joe A. Stone and Mrs. Edgar Scott served fruit cup cakes, spiced tea and homemade candy for refreshments.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Kendall with Mrs. Lovell Shaw co-hostess. An auction will be held at this meeting.
