Herd Ownership Should be Filled

In the next few months there will be considerable movement of farm families and also in the ownership of cattle herds. In order that cattle owners may readily receive their brucellus results of any testing done for them, it would be very advantageous to a custodian at Nicholas County elementary school, which operates 12 months employ-

Moorefield Christian Church Gets Merit Certificate at Farm, Home Meet

LEXINGTON, Jan. 29 (Special) — Certificates of merit for outstanding community service programs were given Tuesday to 14 rural churches of this state at a special awards session of the 51st Annual Farm and Home Week.
Dr. W. A. Seay, dean of U. K. College of Agriculture and Home Economics, made the presentations.
It is the 17th year the University and the Kentucky Council of Churches have given such citations.
Dean Seay pointed out that all the churches are in "open country" or villages, have small but active memberships (usually 100 persons) and have shown membership increases despite declining rural populations.
The local church was Moorefield Christian church, Nicholas county.
The Rev. Larry Miracle, minister.
The award was given in part because of the building program completed last year, services being held five every Sunday and increased program of social services; revel: 75th anniversary and general service to Moorefield by members.
Ralph Ramsey, U.K. Agricultural Extension Service rural sociologist, 4-5 to belong in the selections, said the activities of the honored churches varied.
These included church surveys, assistance in revised ward district planning, bookmobiles and library facilities, health clinics, polio vaccination campaigns, bloodmobiles, help older-persons' clubs, reading programs for individuals, family night programs, visits to state institutions, kindergarten organization, human relations and race relations educational programs, and others.
"Many special services were held with other community churches at Easter-time, and the church has been a center of activity for the community."

Type III Oral Vaccine Clinic

Sunday, Feb. 3, from 1:15 a. m. is the time set for the
at the Nicholas County high school. The vaccine will be given by the local doctors and nurses under the supervision of the local Health Department.
Children and pregnant women are especially urged to take the vaccine and a large turn out of Nicholas County people is expected at this clinic.
Members of the Carlisle city school P.T.A. will be in charge of transportation within the city. Mrs. Kimball is in charge of this phase of the clinic work and she may be contacted if anyone wishes to volunteer their services or request transportation. Marked cars will maintain an hourly schedule on each street of the town. The following schedule has been set up for your convenience: 12:45 p. m., 1:45 p. m., 2:45 p. m., and the last trip will be at approximately 3:45 p. m.
If you do not have transportation ready at one of the above scheduled hours and come take your vaccine.
Help us make the county free of the crippling disease of polio before the polio season starts.
The National Foundation has played a major role in financing the clinic and the Y.F.W. Auxiliary as sponsor.
Type I, II and III Oral Vaccine Clinics urges the public to be generous in giving to the March of Dimes.

Three County Tobacco Meet

A three county tobacco meeting will be held at the Harrison County Courthouse Friday, Feb. 8, starting at 10 a. m. Tobacco growers from Nicholas, Bourbon, and Harrison counties are to attend. The first session is from 10:12 o'clock.
Speakers will include Ir-
masie, Tobacco Specialist,
Richard Miller, Soils Specialist, and Richard Miller, Extension Entomologist, all of the University of Kentucky. They will cover recommended production practices for 1963.
The afternoon program is from 1:15 p. m. At this time, problems in production will be discussed. Such problems as fertilizer application, use of hybrid varieties, minor elements, insect and disease control, use of MH 30, and other individual problems will be handled by these three specialists.
All Nicholas county farmers are invited.

Chaplaincy Program Begun

The Rev. W. R. Raborn,
pastor of the Nicholas Baptist Church, announced today that a new chaplaincy program at the Nicholas County hospital will begin on Monday.
The resident ministers will serve each week at the hospital chapel. The chaplain will visit each hospital patient each day. A more meaningful program of hospital ministry can be obtained in the new program Mr.
Raborn explained.
The Hospital Chaplaincy Committee is composed of
the Rev. August Peters,

Dr. Kingsolver to do Medical Missionary Work

Dr. W. R. Kingsolver will be leaving Carlisle late in February for six months for the Nicotian Congo. He is going under the auspices of the Congo Student Relief. While there he will be working in a Methodist Hospital.
His family will accompany him and they will return to Carlisle in August.
Dr. Lloyd Pennington will continue as Dr. Kingsolver's associate in his absence.

Farm Bureau to FB Week February

The Nicholas County
Farm Bureau will observe
Farm Bureau Week February 4-8, according to an announcement made today by Matthew Kennedy, president. This special week is set aside to honor present members for their work and to urge other local people to join. The Nicholas County Farm Bureau provides each of its members with a free tractor insurance policy, provides complete insurance coverage, helps sponsor local athletic events, tobacco festival, youth activities and all local programs of interest to the county.
Mr. Kennedy said over two hundred families have already mailed in their 1963 memberships. The county

ers from Nicholas, Bourbon,
and Harrison counties are
is from 10:12 o'clock.
Speakers will include Ir-
masie, Tobacco Specialist,
ialist, and Richard Miller, Ex-
the University of Ken-
ommended production practices for 1963.
The afternoon program is
problems in production will
be discussed. Such prob-
problems will be handled
by these three specialists.
ers are invited.

The Rev. W. R. Raborn,
pastor of the Nicholas Baptist
at the Nicholas County hospital will begin on Monday.
ed in the new program Mr.
Raborn explained.

Dr. Kingsolver to do Medical Missionary Work

he will be working in a Methodist Hospital.
Carlisle in August.

Farm Bureau to FB Week February

by Matthew Kennedy, pres-
county.
Mr. Kennedy said over
already mailed in their 1963
