Fleming Mason RECC to Celebrate Silver Anniversary

The stage is set for the Silver Anniversary annual meeting of Fleming Mason RECC to be held Tuesday evening, July 16, at 6 p.m. Thousands of members, relatives and friends from the eight county area served by the Co-op are expected to be on hand for this combined business and pleasure meeting which rivals the old time country fair as a place to meet your friends.

Just twenty-five years ago this month, the Co-op received a loan of $220,000 to build 97.9 miles of line in Fleming and Mason counties to serve 320 members. Today the Co-op serves 9,346 members in 2,162 miles of line in eight counties.

As has been in the custom in the past several years, the meeting will be held in huge circus size tents which will roll on to the Fleming Mason RECC grounds early Tuesday morning. Accompanying the tents and crew, will be a group of professional entertainers including: The Grimaldis musical comedy team;Rube Shaffer, versatile musician; Tony Toyoda, "the Sinatra of Japan"; Florine Oler, organist and Peyton and Raye with their amazing dog act. These artists will perform following the annual business meeting at which two directors will be elected and a report made on the past year's progress; a beauty contest at which time Miss Fleming Mason RECC will be selected; door prizes awarded and

Carlisle-Nicholas Little League to Host Area Four Play-Offs

George Nolin, president of the Nicholas County-Carlisle Little League Baseball Association, announced today that the area four Little League play-offs will be played at the Carlisle Athletic field July 22, and 23.

In Little League competition each state is divided into three divisions: areas, districts and State. Once a team has won a State championship it then moves into regional competion from where the winners go to the Little League World Series.

Area four is composed of Cynthiana, Flemingsburg, Morehead and Carlisle. The winners of this area will play the winners of area three, composed of Winchester, Georgetown, and Richmond. Areas one and two include all Lexington teams, Nicholasville and Harrodsburg.

The Carlisle-Nicholas County Little League, which was organized several years ago, consist of four teams of 15 boys each and sponsored by the Rotary Club, the Farm Bureau, the American Legion and the Chamber of Commerce. From among the 60 boys participating in the local league, an all-star team of 15 has been picked to play in the area play-offs.

Mr. Nolin and Marion Sims represented the local team in Lexington Monday night when the drawings were made.

Sims has been named as tournament manager and Paul House has been chosen to manage the local all-stars.

Estimated 7,500 Crowded Square To Witness Festival Activities

Miss Whitaker Crowned Queen; Miranda Float Takes First

The 15th Annual four-day Blackberry Festival and Homecoming sponsored by the local American Legion, Post 17, jammed a crowd of more than 3,000 persons into the public square here Wednesday night to witness the initial activities of the 1963 gala event.

City officials and members of the sponsoring organization opened the festival by leading a parade in which rode the ten girls who were competing for the title of queen of the festival.

A crowd, estimated at between 7,500 and 8,000 persons, watched the parade of floats and fireworks Thursday night.

A float depecting the theme "Emblem of Democracy" entered by the Miranda Homemakers Club won first prize in the float parade competition. Second prize was won by the Ellisville Homemakers Club for its portrayal of "Our Glorious Heritage". Third prize was awarded to Our Lady of Gaudaloupe Catholic Church Shrine whose theme was "Keeping God in Education".

Special commendation was given to a float sponsored by the Carlisle Office of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, whose theme was "My Sons of Kentucky in the Civil War".

Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings children' games were conducted under the direction of Charles Cox, County Attorney.

Kenneth Fern, past state Commander of the American Legion, delivered a patrotic address to the crowd Thursday night and Bob Anderson of Louisville, national committeeman from Kentucky for the American Legion, spoke Friday night.

Colonel Anderson also crowned Miss Judy Whitaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chad Whitaker of Moorefield, Queen of the 1963 Blackberry Festival.

Saturday night a special drawing for prize money was held.

The Paris, Cynthiana and Nicholas County High School Bands added to the color of the festival as they paraded on Wednesday and Friday nights.

Dancing in the public square from 9:30 p.m. until mid-night climaxed the activities of each day during the festival.

Adrain Anderson is commander of American Legion Post 17 sponsor of the annual event.

Students at Speech Institute

Six Nicholas County students are registered for the third annual two-weeks High School Speech Institute which opened Monday at the University of Kentucky.

Participating in debate, discussion and extemporaneous speaking will be Robert L. Talbert and Brenda Bach, sophomores. O. K Curry, junior; and Jimmie Boyd and John Sharp, seniors. Elizabeth Ann Clay, sophomore, entered the drama division.

Students will learn research methods and receive instructions in forensic and drama divisions of speech events. Dr. Denver Sloan of the U.K. Division of Extended Programs is coordinator of the two-week course.

Ninety-nine students from 39 Kentucky high schools are registered for the Speech Institute which began with a get-accquainted party Sunday evening in the lounge of Holmes Hall where the girls are living. The boys of the Institute are living in Donovan Hall.

Library Schedules Artist Program

Children of both age groups participating in the summer library program at the Nicholas County Library are requested to be present at the library at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, July 13th. The program will be the showing of a feature length film, The Pied Piper of Hamblin.

The final program of the series is scheduled for July 20th. This program will be presented by Mr. Malcolm Grear, a professional artist and member of the faculty of the Rhode Island School of Design, Providence, R. I.

John C. Smart, 23 a native of Carlisle, will be serving this summer as an intern with the Division of the Budget in the State Department of Finance.

Smart will begin postgraduate study in September as a fellow of the Southern Region Training Program, a cooperative educational venture to train selected students of public administration.

Schools participating in S.R.T.P. are the Universities of Alabama, Tennessee, and Kentucky. Fellows are given the option of completing a thesis for the master's degree at any one of the three institutions after the year's study.

Smart was graduated from Wittenberg University, Springfield, Ohio, last spring and attended duPont Manual High School at Louisville.

He is married to the former Mary Jo Whitmarsh of Louisville. They live at 405 Thistleton Terrace, Frankfort, but last 109 Ninth Street, Paris, as their permanent address.
