Panhellenic Party
The Lexington City Panhellenic has extended a party invitation to all local girls who plan to attend college in the Fall. The party will be held at Forrer Hall, located on Transylvania College campus on Saturday, July 27, from 2:00 to 4 p.m. All girls planning to attend college anywhere this fall are invited to attend whether or not a written invitation was received. This year, for the first time, mothers are also being invited, so that they, too, may learn about life on campus. An annual affair, the party seeks to acquaint girls with sorority life, with college "rushing", with the meaning of sorority membership, and with some facts about national college sororities.
Refreshments will be served upon arrival, with Mrs. Irvin E. Lunger, wife of the President of Transylvania College, and Dean Frances S. Jennings, Dean of Women at Transylvania College, serving punch. Guests will then have an opportunity to view displays from each national sorority in this area. Dean Doris Seward, Dean of Women at the University of Kentucky, will give a brief informative talk on College Life". The program for the afternoon will close with small discussion groups, where the girls and their mothers can ask questions concerning college.

The wedding of Miss Mary Louise Hollar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hollar of Carlisle, and Kenneth R. Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hill of Cynthiana, was solemnized at 2 o'clock p.m. Sunday, July 14, at the Carlisle Methodist Church.
The Rev. O. S. Gardner officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar of green ivy, white gladioli and tapers in candelbra. The tapers were lighted by Frankie Hill, brother of the groom, of Cynthiana.

Mrs. Sterling Blake was organist and Mrs. Cheryl Hicks of Cynthiana, vocalist.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin featuring a square neckline scalloped with lace and pearls and long pointed sleeves. The full domed skirt, with a busell effect in the back, swept into a long chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a tiara of miniature pearl flowers. She carried a white Prayer Book topped with a white orchid and stephanotis tied with white streamers.
Mrs. Earl Finch, Jr. of Carlisle, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a street length sheath of pink lace with a bell shaped skirt and jacket. Her hat was of pink petals and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.
The bridesmaids were Miss Sharon Insko and Miss Brenda Fryman both of Carlisle. They wore street length dresses of pink organza with lace jackets and matching circular veils. They carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations.
Buddy Jones of Cynthiana served Mr. Hill as best man. Ushers were Milton Bell and Wayne Wells both of Cynthiana.
Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. Assisting at the reception was Mrs. George Dale, Mrs. Bobby Fryman, sister of the groom, Mrs. Lovell Hollar, Mrs. Raymond Wesley and Miss Robbie Harney.
The bride graduated in 1963 from Nicholas County high school. Mr. Hill was graduated from Harrison County High, class of '62. He is employed at Blake and Johnson in Cynthiana.
