Homemakers Meet With Mrs. Kendall
The Miranda Homemaker Club met at the home of Mrs. Walter Kendall for their February meeting at 1:00 o'clock. Mrs. Lovell Shaw was co-hostess. 23 members and Mrs. Margie Wilson attended.
The president, Mrs. George Scott presided with the business and Mrs. Willie Stone gave the devotional. Mrs. Joe A. Stone gave the landladies' notes and also suggested we try the newly recommended garden seeds on the market this year.
A very interesting lesson on "Accent Through Accessory" was given by Mrs. Cecil Smart and Mrs. James Lowe. They demonstrated with accessories what they can do for the room. They add the finishing touch and make the room seem your very own when well chosen. A few things stressed by our leaders were: what to consider when buying our accessories, plastic, the number to be used, materials and shapes and combining them. A few well chosen accessories go a long way toward brightening your room.
The Homemakers Talent Show to be held March 29, was discussed and for recreation we had our annual auction. Our March meeting will be held at the Assembly Room.

NICHOLAS COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL NEWS
by Faye Beaker
Miss Paulette Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Anderson, was crowned Basketball Queen last Friday night by the captain of the team, Jackie Fryman. A dozen red roses were presented to the queen by last year's queen Miss Joyce Wills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Wills. Other candidates were seniors: Judy Caswell and Mary Hollar; Junior: Sue McCre; Sophomores: Brenda Curran, Linda Ritchie and Linda Jones; Freshman: Rita Hunter; Judy Clinkenbeard, and Paula Storey.
The speech students at Nicholas county are preparing for another practice tournament at Henry Clay school in March. After it the ones showing the most effort will go to the Regional Speech Tournament.
