BUFFALO TRACINGS
President Kennedy is the No. 1 choice of the American people as the man they most read about in the world today, according to a recent national-wide poll. Numerous books about the U.S. President are available at the Nicholas County Memorial Library. John Kennedy's Crucial Decisions, by Helen Fuller, for a fascinating look at the new administration — how it was formed, the men who make it up, the ideas and philosophies that motivate them — read Stan Opatowky's, "The Kennedy Gift." Mary Thayer's "Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy" is a best-seller when it was first published in 1956, tells of the courageous stands made by U.S. Senators from the early days of our country to the present day. "Why England Slept," which was written by Kennedy in 1950, is also available at the library.

one beauty without an old flame eye-level cooking electrically
There's more to this range than meets the eye. It tucks neatly between cabinets to look like a custom-made built-in — yet gives you all the flexibility of the free-standing model it truly is. And, of course, there's its flameless performance that makes it a model of safety and efficiency too. Only electricity is needed — and only electric heat gives you clean, contact cooking. If you want to go first class, change to an electric range. It's flameless — and modern!
