MIRANDA HOMEMAKERS
by Mrs. Edgar Scott
The meeting of the Miranda Homemakers Club was held in the assembly room for an afternoon meeting on March 13. Twelve members and Mrs. Marie Wilson attended.

Our president, Mrs. George Scott presided with the business. A questionnaire was filled out by each member, on what we know about the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers.

We were very honored to have Ralph Wesley and Edith Taylor, two young men from the debating team of Nicholas County high to speak to us on the European Common Market.

Our lesson which was most interesting was given by Mrs. W. W. Rigg and Mrs. Edgar Darrell. They stressed that all of us would like to get along with others, and that the first step in getting along with others is to recognize that honest values will level a purpose and can be changed when we understand it and work to change it.

Mrs. Maurice King is the recreational chairman. Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Scott.

Our next meeting will be on April 9, at the home of Mrs. W. W. Rigg, with Mrs. Maurice King co-hostess.
