GARRETT'S FURNITURE

A Little Yappin'

By Nellie Crump
A Christian Gentleman.
Death has again called on this neighborhood and taken one of our most beloved neighbors. Oscar Shroat had lived on Morgan street for several years and was one of the best known and highly respected men in Nicholas county. He was my neighbor on West Main street when my mother lay ill for more than fourteen years and my father passed away in the meantime.
Possessing a special gift from God, his way with the sick was uncanny. Never was he too tired, never was a night too dark and stormy for him to come in time of need.
Oscar again became my neighbor on Morgan street. He was an expert cook and prepared food and carried it to me when I had been ill in the hospital three different times. Thinking it over today as close friends laid him to rest in the Carlisle Cemetery, I know a better friend and neighbor never lived.
