I cook on a wood stove and have an accessory gas burner, but the bottled gas is limited. Our house is on a hill overlooking the Wambler River and the jungle forest along it a lovely view!

When the evening sky turns red silhouetting the palm trees, and the tropical birds call, then the stars of the southern cross come out brightly in the sky. The Complete chant around their little first and the drums beat a rhythm to the night. We know that this is Congo, its very heart, and we are thrilled to be here.

We send our love to all of you and our deepest gratitude for your prayers. Wendell and Ginny Kingsolver, Bobby Barbers and Ann Dr. and Mrs. W. R. King.
