Friday night was the big night for the missionary women at the conference in Lexington. 58 women from different churches in the conference were in the $100 march. Mrs. M. J. O'Hara and Mrs. Edna Boyd represented Wesley Chapel. After the march a free turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served to these ladies and other persons attending the conference. The money these ladies raise is used for education, building and repairing church property.

Rev. M. J. O'Hara was sent to Phillips Temple C. M. E. Church Ashland, Ky. Rev. W. J. Morgan is the new pastor of Wesley Chapel.
Best wishes to Rev. and Mrs. M. J. O'Hara in their new field of labor. While at the conference Rev. O'Hara was one of the ministers on the Joint Board of Finance.
Pvt. Ronald Wilson, Fort Bragg, N. C. visited with relatives and friends for a few days last week.
Mrs. Carrie Wilson and her husband accompanied him back to North Carolina on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. George Ledford went to Lexington Saturday night to see their new grandson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. McReynolds of Lexington.
Miss Jane Stevenson of Cincinnati, visited friends and family last week.
Richard Johnson of Cincinnati visited in Carlisle on Monday.

MR. SMITH has been making CARPETS for the homemakers of America for 118 years. The carpet he makes will fit your needs now and in the years to come. Above all—he knows that only the honest value will keep his cherished traditions alive.
TRY SAMSHIRING—a wonderful, new all-weather surface Wilton carpet at an astonishingly low price.
On the agenda will be the election of a director to serve for a two-year term, and the selection of a Dairy Princess to represent this district at the state-wide meeting in Louisville in February.
