

We Are Guilty, Too!

Several weeks we have entertained the thought, something would be said on the subject of sidewalk sales, particularly when they are in Carlisle.

Readers Comments

The Carlisle Mercury is a right or wrong paper. Five men have arbitrarily decided that certain Carlisle citizens should be restricted.

As we look at the reasons given for this curfew, and recall that a curfew is to be used only when the majority of the people are law-breakers.

Scotch Pine Becoming Favorite Christmas Tree

Lexington--The Scotch pine, a plantation-grown tree native to the United States, rapidly is becoming the favorite Christmas tree of Americans.

In 1955, a million and a half Scotch pine were used, says James Newman, U. S. Extension Service forester, but in 1956 the number had grown to 1 1/2 million. The tree is a favorite because of its color, branch and leaf arrangement.
