Dr. Shepherd Pulls Children From Burning Car

Dr. Jack Shepherd, Georgetown dentist, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shepherd, pulled two children from a burning car on Hamilton Street, Georgetown, Monday. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomas Burrow.

Robert Thomas Burrow, a died at 6 p.m. Tuesday at the John Govek Memorial Hospital. His sister, Cheryl, was in fair condition, suffering from burns and smoke inhalation.

Dr. Shepherd said he was going to his office about 9:15 a.m. Monday when he saw a smoke pouring from one of the cars windows. When he opened the car door the front seat burst into flames. Reaching over the blazing front seat of the two door sedan, he found the children and pulled them out, one at a time.

One of Dr. Shepherd's dental assistants took the children to the hospital. Firemen found the inside of the automobile was demolished. Cause of the fire was not determined.
