

NICHOLAS COUNTY HI NEWS

By Judy Whitaker
"Oh no, I know what she's talking about," said Clyde Sema. This surprising statement was made when Mrs. Raymond Wesley told her junior homeroom there was a surprise for them and the juniors would meet before first period.
On Wednesday, March 11, the juniors were told they would receive their class rings in a week.
When the big day came "FANDANGO!" was seen at N.C.H.S.
"I can't believe it," said Sharon Ockerman. Wisty Shearer stated, "I've been looking forward to this for eleven years." Most of the juniors were asking every word of the day, "Mr. Wilson, aren't our class rings in yet?"

Students from the City School who were rated superior with their solos: Mack Morrison, Clarinet (left); Jane Talbert, saxophone; Rocky Smith, clarinet; and Mary Dunn, clarinet, (right).

ADULT HOME MAKING CLASS TO START
Spring has sprung! Evidence is seen throughout the country as women's fashions turn to spring cleaning, planting gardens, and improving lawns. Yes, the annual "spruce-up" campaign is in full swing but, what about us? Area's we entitled to a spring tonic, too? Come attend a friend as we learn to put our best foot forward into the Spring of 1964.
The adult home making class with an "Accent on You" will be held in the Nicholas County Home Economics Department

BUY AYRSHIRES
Thirty-four registered Ayrshire females have been purchased by Nicholas cousins from Clarence Lohus, Lexington. Because of their thriftiness and ability to produce an abundance of 4 percent milk economically, Ayrshires continue to be popular with breeders and commercial dairymen.
Paul Tincher purchased 15, Luther Tincher, four; Sidney Bow, 12, and Dean Bow, two.
