

LOCAL TEACHERS GIVE PROGRAM
Featured at the Nicholas Teachers meeting on Monday, April 6, was a special program given by local teachers from the Carlisle and Morefield schools. Mrs. Clyde Swelling reviewed an article on "Homework" taken from the KZA Journal and Mrs. Walter Shephard reviewed an article on "Discipline" which appeared in the NKA Journal. All the Morefield teachers participated in a skit entitled "Passing Through" furnished by NKA.

The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Jimmy Conrad and Mrs. R. L. Talbert, president-elect, was in charge of the program.

Schools will be closed on April 9 and 10 for the Kentucky Education Association Convention which will be held in Louisville.

Nicholas county teachers will be represented by Mrs. Conrad.

CARLISLE WEEST HOMEIMAKERS
The Carlisle West Homeimakers met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eugene Neal.

Mrs. Marion Mathers gave the devotional.

The major project lesson, "How to make your own linings", was taught by Mrs. J. R. Hamilton.

IPPERY construction is no different. You can have the professional look you so much admire if you measure accurately and follow proper construction methods.

Draperies hold together the decorative scheme of your room. They may be made and hung to make the window appear larger or hung so they cover part of the window glass and make the window look smaller. Choose fabrics carefully so they are colorfast to light, washing and cleaning. Some fabrics need ironing while heavier ones hang nicely without lining. Be sure your material is straight and figured material must repeat design in each length. Edges and corners must form a square corner.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Omer Berry.

Challenge To Young Men
Frankfort — Highway Commissioner Ward has bluntly challenged the young men of Kentucky to help build their state by enrolling in a technical training program that will lead to a full-time job with the Kentucky Department of Highways.

In order to train and develop engineering assistance, the Highway Department will sponsor an eight-week technician training program at the University of Kentucky from June 8 to July 31, 1964.

Kentucky's expanded program of constructing interstate highways, parkways, primary routes and rural roads has created a heavy demand for young, highly trained technicians who can assist our engineering personnel," Ward said.

The Department will pay for instruction and classroom space for sixtysix students. The students will be required to pay room, food and supply costs, but they will be paid $200.00 a month during the training period.

The trainees, four from each highway district and eighteen from the state at large, will receive a monthly stipend of $150.00.

large number of at least eighteen years old by the end of the program and have a high school diploma with a strong mathematics background.

In addition, the applicants must pass the state merit system examination for engineering helper and agree to work for the Department for a year.

The training program will include 37 hours of instruction a week of mathematics; algebra; trigonometry; plane and route surveying; surveying field practice; engineering drawing; highway materials; laboratory practices and public relations.

Trainees that finish the program in the top fourth of the class and who are 1964 high school graduates will be considered for the Highway Department's University of Kentucky Engineering Scholarship Program for the 1964-65 academic year.

Further information about the program may be obtained from the training officer, Personnel Division, Kentucky Highway Department, Frankfort, Kentucky or from the 12 Highway District Offices.

Social Security

NOTE: Questions for this Column should be directed to "Questions," Social Security Administration District Office, 950 Winchester Road, Lexington, Kentucky.

Question: I am receiving monthly benefits. My wife and children are also receiving benefits on my record. My son is working this summer and he will earn $150 per month. Will this effect our benefits?

Answer: No. If your son works only during the summer months, he will earn about $450 for the summer. As long as he does not earn over $1200 for the year, his benefits will not be affected.

Question: My wife is working and earning $200 per month. How will her work affect our benefits?

Answer: Your wife will earn $200 for the year. Since she earns over $1200, her benefits will be suspended.

Question: Will benefits be withheld from me and my children because of my wife's work?

Answer: No benefits will be withheld from your wife only. If you work, however, benefits will be withheld from your entire family based on the amount of money you earn.

Question: What are the most frequent errors employers make when filing their quarterly reports?

Answer: The most frequent errors are: omission of social security numbers, and showing a name different from that shown on the employer's social security card. Correct and complete reporting will save you time by avoiding future correspondence.
