WILSON-CROUCH WEDDING VOWS

The marriage of Miss Mary Jane Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Ralph Wilson of Sharpsburg and the late Dr. Wilson, and Harvey Clark Crouch, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Crouch of Sharpsburg, was solemnized at 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Sharpsburg Christian Church.

The Rev. Robert White officiated at the ceremony. Mrs. Ewell Arrasmith, organist, and Mrs. Russell Boyd, vocalist, presented nuptial music. The church was decorated with white gladioli and greenery and lighted by tapers in candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Ralph N. Wilson, of Louisville, wore a gown of ivory delustered satin. The pearl embroidered peau d' ange lace appliqued bodice was styled with a low petal-etched crescent neckline and long tapered sleeves. The floor-length bell front skirt embellished with lace motifs was styled with a full chapel train topped with a bow. Her ivory French illusion bouffant veil was held by a headpiece of lace and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias and ivy.

Mrs. Wilson, the matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of willow green brocade with a controlled bell skirt, a bow in front, a scoop neckline and elbow-length sleeves. She wore a headpiece of illusion attached to a brocade bow. She carried a cascade of white mums.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Stephen Kash of St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Billy Meyers Stewart of Bethel, Mrs. Milton Wilson and Mrs. William C. Ramey of Sharpsburg. Their outfits were identical to that of the matron of honor.

Edith William and Karen Ramey of Sharpsburg were the flower girls. They wore ivory taffeta floor-length dresses with willow green brocade sashes. Their headpees were miniature bows with illusions. They carried ivory baskets and dropped rose petals.

Philip H. Sewell of Bethlehem served as best man. Ushers were Glenn Wilson of Lexington, Glenn Benner of Columbia, and Ed William and Alan B. Peck of Sharpsburg.

A reception was held at the church.

After a wedding trip South, the couple will live at 301 West Main Street, Mt. Sterling.

The bride attended Berau College and is a graduate of Eastern Kentucky State College. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority and is employed by the Montgomery County Board of Education.

Mr. Crouch attended Eastern Kentucky State College and is a graduate of the University of Kentucky. He is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity. He is engaged in banking and farming in Sharpsburg.
