Santa Letters

Dec. 1, 1964

Dear Santa,

I am a little girl, six years old. I haven't been real good but I am trying to be better.

I live at 105 James Court, Lexington, Kentucky. We will have up a Christmas tree and a lot of decorations so you won't miss us. We have a big fireplace in our living room, and we won't have any fire in it, so you can come down the chimney. My mother says the chimney is big enough. Please be careful.

My parents are sending a check to Sears Roebuck, and a list of the things I want, so if you don't have all of the things, you can stop at Sears and bring them to me.

I would like to have a Scuba Duba Doll or a Chatty Baby, a housecoat, house slippers and pajamas. My birthday is on December 12, and the things I don't get then, will you please bring them? I would also like a boy doll and some doll clothes. Please leave some fruit and candy, too.

Don't forget all of the less fortunate boys and girls. May everyone be well and happy for Christmas is my wish.

Thank you, Santa, for being real nice to me, the past six Christmases, and bringing me all the things I want.

I love you very much.
Your little girl,
Connie Jane Jolly

Dear Santa,

I am a little girl, I am 8 years old. I go to Moorefield school. I am in the third grade. Please bring me a Charmin Chatty doll. Don't forget my two sisters, and mother and Daddy. There will be something to eat for you under the tree.

Love
Amy Lyons

December 1, 1964

Dear Santa,

I am a little red headed boy, age four. I haven't been real good, as I fight a lot with my sister. I will try to be better.

I live at 105 James Court, Lexington, Kentucky, We will have our chimney ready for you to come down. My mommy says it is big enough, but please be careful. We will have our tree and decorations all lite up so you won't miss us.

Sears has a lot of the toys and things I want, so if you don't have time to make them, you can bring them from Sears. My parents will send Sears a check and a list of the things, so they will let you have them.

I would like to have Larry the Lion, and a boy doll, a robe, housesilppers and pajamas. Also like cars, guns, and books. Don't forget my Roy Rogers guitar, Please leave me some fruit and candy.

Make all of the other, boys and girls happy at Christmas. Don't forget my six grandparents, and my sister.

Thank you, Santa for being real nice to me and bringing me all the things I want.

I love you very much.
Your little boy,
Lonnie Wayne Jolly
