Farm & Home

WINTER MONTHS ARE WORST FOR FIRES

Home fires increase during the winter months. Now is a good time to change any bad fire-starting habits you've picked up over your year.

Check your smoking habits.

If you are a cigarette smoker, you're asking for trouble. Do you ever leave a cigarette burning unattended? Do you smoke in bed? If you can answer yes to either question, your life is in danger because it takes only one stray spark to start a fire that is uncontrollable blaze. Matches should never be left within the reach of children. And remember, if you are smoking away from buildings, use ashtrays and extinguishers.

Because fire fighting equipment is not always readily available, the best way to stop a fire as to prevent one -- is at today.

Christmas Tree Suggestion.

Have a safe and Merry Christmas by making sure fire doesn't spoil your holiday. Two major rules to remember are: get a fresh Christmas tree and trim it properly. Examine the needles and branches for dryness. If the tree is not fresh, the needles will fall off when it is dry and not fresh. This tree will be a fire hazard once it is lit.

From the Diary of a Country Editor

by Warren R. Fisher Sr.

So, bestricken by my thoughts, and the day somewhat lurching, despite the weather. Proverbs are proverbially correct and I have abandoned them since the old Spencerian copy book days, making their last gasp I began learning to hold a pen, but "there's nothing either good nor bad, but thinking makes it so," a beautiful wisdom in its eleven words than many a pleasant thought. And if you have the blue eyes and one dimple and Lord help us, another strong, even if anyone you feel better and grow downright polite, even if the weather is so abominable and depressing that a giant fellow like the black-capped chickadee is strutting over his breakfast seat.

40 Years Ago December 18, 1924

Eastill Springs Hotel, oldest summer resort in the state, started in 1945, burns to ground.

Four Nicholas county men arrested and two fined for possession of 20 gallon capacity confederated.

Work on dredger being done on the river in operation by James Kruger Grocery Co., leases Kadder, on the banks and will occupy at least six months.

Stallions, however, realized that increased buying does not automatically follow. Hence, the corresponding increase in promotional budgets by such giant stores as Macy's and Highways.

Consumers have reason to postpone the purchase of many expensive gift items. Excess taxes on them are likely to be repealed in 1965.

However, the prospect of lower prices several months after Christmas does not dampen the experienced retailer. Products are always cheaper after a seasonal buying peak.

Increased advertising budgets are based on the knowledge that timeliness is the most important factor in gift buying.

With advertising doing its expected job of stimulating demand, few consumers will wait until next May to buy perfume and furs for their 1964 Christmas.
