Dear Santa,

We are two little boys going on 5 and 2. We stay with our Mamaw while Mommy works. She says we're bad, but Santa I really don't think so. At least I'm trying to be good. How can I help it if my little brother gets into everything, and I help him play with things we shouldn't. I'm like most boys my age. I want everything I see. I like to look at toy books. I've never been to any of your toy stores. You can bring me anything you want to. Bring Jeffie anything you think a little boy almost 2 needs and I'll play with his things too. Bring Mamaw Mitchell something too, but please Santa take her paddle with you. I'll leave you something to eat if you take it.
