Santa Letters

Route 1
Moorefield, Ky.
December 4, 1964

Dear Santa,

My name is Jeffrey Len and I have been a pretty good boy most of the time. I am five years old.

I would like for you to bring me a blackboard, a bulldozer, a Daisy Ricochet Rifle, and some trucks and cars.

My little sister Starla Jane is sixteen months old and she is good all of the time. She wants a teddybear, a Jack-N-Jill TV-Radio, some clothes, and some cars so she'll leave mine alone.

We'll be looking forward to your visit.

Your little friends,
Jeffrey Len and
Starla Jane Smoot

Dear Santa,

I am an 8 year old girl. I am in grade 3 at the Carlisle Grade School. I am not asking for much this year, just bring me a small radio, roller skates, and a fuzzy dog. Please be good to all the other boys and girls. I love you very much.

Bye bye for now,
Lisa Dotson

We are two little boys 4 and 6 years old.

Here is what we would like to have for Christmas this year.

I, Garry would like a bulldozer, a wagon, a hay bailer and tractor and a gun.

I, Darrell would like to have a scat car, an army gun, bulldozer and steam shovel.

We haven't been very good little boys but we will try to be better.

Don't forget all of our little friends and playmates, we will go to bed early and leave something under our tree for you.

All our love
Garry and Darrell Gray

Dear Santa,

I am a little boy 4 years old, I try to be good, but you know that's hard for little ones to do, especially little boys.

Would you please bring me a low boy truck with a backhoe bulldozer on it. Also a trumpet, I didn't know you would bring clothes, but my mommy said you would, so would you please bring me some new clothes.

Don't forget all my cousins and little friends. I have lots of them. Santa don't forget my daddy. He is down in Florida working and I stayed at home with mommy so I could see some snow this year.

I learned my piece for the Christmas program at my Sunday School.

Hope to see you Christmas Eve night.

Love,
Jackie Lee Jones

Dear Santa,

I want a Mickey Mouse talking telephone, an Etch-a-Sketch, easy-bake oven, Pebbles doll, and some building bricks. Don't forget my brother, Louis, and my sister, Patricia. Please leave my toys at my Granny and Grandad Wagoner's house. Please bring Paula and Jennifer some nice toys, too. I will see you at Christmas Time.

Dear Santa,

I am a little blondish red haired, blue eyed girl almost a whole year old. My Daddy calls me "Knuckles" I'm just average not too good not to bad. My Mommy says maybe you will forgive me for it's daddy's and her fault and that real good little girls are hard to find.

I have seen all your toys and reached for them all, but please bring me a teeny weeny Tiny Tears doll and crib, a few pull toys and a little suede jacket, and also a little red wagon, so my daddy can pull me. Don't forget my big brother "Mike."

Your little mischievious girl
Kimberly Lee Sosby

P. S. I also like candy.

Dear Santa,

Age Determines Type Of Toys

According to authorities, primary consideration should be given to a child's age and to toys which are not dangerous for him to handle. This opinion and some general rules to be followed in selecting toys for different age groups appear in the Better Way section of December's Good Housekeeping Magazine.

INFANTS. Babies under one like things with bright colors, shapes they can explore and textures they can feel. Such toys include stuffed animals and dolls, squeak toys, sturdy rattles, balls and even nonbreakable cups or other smooth objects.

ONE TO TWO. A child now investigates things around him. Like infants, toddlers put almost everything into their mouths. Playthings that can be taken apart and put together easily (such as nests of blocks or boxes), pegboards and push-pull toys are suitable.

TWO TO THREE. These children are more experimental. Things with which to build and toys that can be shared are desirable. A few are: building blocks, wooden animals and kiddie cars or tricycles.

THREE TO FOUR. This is an imitative age. Toys which encourage make-believe aid in learning. Toys should be sturdy. In this group are small brooms, carpet sweepers, garden tools, doctor's or nurse's kits.

FOUR TO SIX. Children begin to read; play becomes more complex. Dolls and dollhouses, games, craft and construction sets among others please this group.

SIX TO EIGHT. Skills are developing. Sewing materials, carpenter tools or science toys are popular. Sleds, skates and playground equipment can be used.

EIGHT TO TEN. Hobbies develop. Model building sets and more complicated tools can be used. The National Safety Council recommends that a bicycle or electric train should not be given before a child is eight.

OVER TEN. Play habits, hobbies and sports learned as youngsters continue to develop. There is a growing interest in competition and skill perfection (e.g., archery sets, target shooting and dart games).

Holiday Scrapbook

Caught up in the excitement of the approaching holiday, children begin to get restless as Christmas day comes nearer. They need a "project" to keep them occupied.

Most children will enjoy making a Christmas scrapbook. Set aside a place to work, in their own room or the family playroom.

Give them a scrapbook, scissors, paste container and a supply of December magazines that you have finished reading, or have saved from last year. Get them started by clipping out an illustration of Santa Claus or some Christmas scene -- then show them how to paste the cutout into the scrapbook.

Forever Christmas

It gets at your heart through your five senses, and you never forget any part of it.

. . . The father who made much of Christmas with a great tree and fabulous tales of Santa.

The mother who baked spicy unforgettables. Secret caches of gifts, when the best gifts were made by hand. The supreme Christmas when you received a live puppy and thought you must surely die with the delight and surprise of it. The candles, the carols, the mistletoe on the twinkling chandelier . . . all, all rush back at a breath of cedar, a snatch of song. Sigh for the old-time Christmas . . . but weave its magic again for the new little people—something lovely for their senses to revel in forever. Candles are not out of style . . . trees still grow and are green, and there is music in the air . . . plan, listen, and be still. . . .
