

AWARDS—Stewart Moore, Coe Oil Agent, presents Miss Elizabeth Ann Clay and Larry Kelly, winners for being chosen outstanding Nicholas County 4-H girl and boy.

F.H.A. NEWS

By Judy Crawford
The Nicholas County Chapter of the Kentucky Association of Future Homemakers of America formed a new chapter this year taking officers from both those elected the previous year from Nicholas County and Carlisle High Schools. They are as follows: Linda Story, president; Sharon Ockerman, first vice president; Linda Marsh, second vice president; Nancy Booth, song leader; Sally Cox, treasurer; Janice Peaback, secretary; Dorcas Allison, recreation leader; Brenda Waggoner, parliamentarian; Judy Crawford, reporter.

The F.H.A. had a hayride early in the year with the F.H.A. This was enjoyed by all. Many F.H.A. girls have ordered and received their F.H.A. pins, rings and jackets which they wear proudly showing the high honor given them as a member of F.H.A. and really the home-maker of tomorrow.

Also this year we have two girls serving on program of work committees. Linda Story is serving on the District Program of Work and Judy Crawford on the State Program of work.

The girls working on their State Degrees in F.H.A. are Linda Story, Dorcas Allison, Phyllis Faulkner and Judy Crawford. I hope this has brought you up to date on the work of the Future Homemakers of America and look for us in the news again soon.
