BAND BOOSTER
The Nicholas County Band Boosters voted Monday night to contribute $500.00 to the Nicholas County Board of Education to help pay for band uniforms.

The Band Boosters also pay bus drivers for taking students to and from school events. This year $78 has been paid to drivers, and more events are scheduled.

When the band went to the Governor's inaugural parade, the Band Boosters are under way for raising more money to be used in promoting and assisting the music program of the schools.

Citizens are encouraged to join the Band Boosters. Plans are under way for raising more money to be used in promoting and assisting the music program of the schools.

The terminus show sponsored by the Band Boosters for the past two years has been a highlight of entertainment at the county fair.

Watch for this year's announcement and join in the fun as directed by the Band Boosters. You can be a member of the cast by performing at the Pickap Truck and Chestnut streets.

It is not to be one year in the audience. In the audience.

The parents and citizens of Nicholas county should know that the present rating from the state will not continue in the future.

Some effort is made to house the entire high school at one site. The program to justify the rating, it should also be noted.

System is actively trying to correct the unfavorable conditions that presently exist.

Sheriff's Office Collect Clothing For Retarded
Nicholas County Sheriff W. J. Dollins announced today that his office is cooperating in the collection of clothing for the two State institutions for the mentally retarded.

Frankfort State Hospital and School and Outwood Hospital in Dawson Springs. The project was adopted on a statewide basis recently by the Kentucky Sheriff's Association.

Clothing left at the sheriff's office will be forwarded to Frankfort or Dawson Springs, sorted for size and distributed among the institutions' some 1,100 residents.

In the clothing shop, residents will try on their selections, aided by volunteers on fit and style from the volunteers' list. Of course, no money will be actually change hands.

Southern States Board Meet
Approximately 82 members of Southern States Co-operative's advisory boards, directors of local co-operatives, committee members, agricultural workers and regional managers from this area, will attend a regional board meeting in Cynthiana on February 26.

The session will be held at the Cynthiana Chamber of Commerce and will begin at 10 a. m.

Also attending the meeting will be a number of members of the former Board of the area.
