Reynolds-Hardwick Wedding Announced

The wedding of Miss Ruth Ann Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reynolds, Springfield, to Ronnie Wayne Hardwick, Danville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hardwick, Carlisle, took place at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, January 25, 1964, in Beech Grove Baptist Church.

The vows were exchanged before a white archway entwined with huckleberry vine, baskets of white gladioli, fern and lighted tapers in candelebra. The Rev. Robert Lanham, Perryville, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Gloria J. Elliott, Richmond, was soloist.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a floor-length gown of chantilly lace over taffeta and nylon tulle. The slim bodice was fashioned with a scalloped sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves traditionally pointed over the hands. The bouffant skirt was accented on either side by tiers of tulle ruffles.

Holding her veil of silk illusion was a queen's crown of pearls and sequins and she carried a white orchid, surrounded by sprays of white carnations with satin streamers tied in lover's knots.

Serving her sister as matron-of-honor was Mrs. Jerry Dunn, Danville.

Miss Marsha Webb and Mrs. Billy Charles Hatchett, Springfield, were bridesmaids.

Jerry Dunn, Danville, brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man.

THE DEPENDABLES: SUCCESS CARS OF '64

Get something off your chest. Your knees, for instance!

Imagine, unwinding and relaxing in a compact. Now you can! And that goes for backseat passengers as well as travelers up front. Because Dart is a compact in the large economy size. Lots of room for hips, heads, feet and knees. Family-size room all-round.

And what goes for Dart in the comfort compartment goes ditto in the performance department. Standard engine is the famous Slant 6 that'll outscat the extra-cost engines in most other compacts. For even more action, there's an optional new Dart V8 that takes no sass from any size car.

But don't let the comfort and sizzle fool you. Dart is a compact. Witness its low price, easy upkeep, great gas mileage, and snappy parkability, and you'll know what we mean. If you're tired of cramped, underpowered compacts, talk to the man who can do something about it—your Dependable Dodge Dealer.
