Red Cross Names Workers

The American Red Cross handled a total of 30,017 cases involving Kentucky veterans and servicemen during the fiscal year of 1963. The majority of these cases, involved personnel on active military service and were handled by the Red Cross staff at Fort Knox and by Chapter Home Service.

The needs of servicemen and their families are a primary obligation of the American Red Cross. We have great hopes that the citizens of this community will join with the workers in helping make the Red Cross county drive in 1964 a success. The following have been those who have been named and their workers in the county:

Covered and vicinity chairman, Mrs. W. W. Bigg and Mrs. Lovell Hollar, co-chairman.

Community workers are: Elizabeth Judge, Miss Nannie Kenney, Mrs. Janie Simon, Mrs. Geneva W. Winchel, Mrs. Marion Campbell, Mrs. S. S. Lyons, Mrs. W. B. Kendall, Mrs. Lovell Shaw, Miss Richard Jordan, Mrs. W. J. Clark, Mrs. E. M. Ector, Mrs. Evelyn Bailey, Mrs. Sylvia McQuilly, Miss Leona McFarland, Mrs. Joe Allen Stone.

Bach Wins Speech Award

Brenda Bach, Nicholas County high school sophomore, is the winner of second place in District 10, Veterans of Foreign War "Voice of Democracy" Speech Contest. The announcement was made by Commander Orville Cramer in a District meeting of Post Commodore held at Richwood, Monday.

Speaking on "The Challenge of Citizenship," this year's national topic for the V. F. W. "Voice of Democracy" contest, Miss Bach was commended for her presentation and hope to many victims of cerebral palsy.

Mrs. C. Wilson, County Chairman, Mrs. Gayle Bowen, City Chairman, and Mrs. Charles M. Cox, Area Chairman appreciated the efforts of each volunteer who helped in the overall conducting of Carlisle and Nicholas county in helping to make this drive successful, so that our county is doing its part in helping the cerebral palsied victims in Central Kentucky.

The Carlisle Common School District No. 28, was chartered March 2, 1888, under the constitution and laws preceding the present constitution adopted in September, 1891.

The Trustees were involved in litigation discharging the duties of the school for two years after the charter was granted. The school preceding the present school was located near the south end of the town of Carlisle.

The last of the bonds on the school were due January 1, 1964, and were ordered paid by the Board of Education at its December meeting 1963.

The first bond issue for the erection of a new school building in the Carlisle Graded Common School District No. 28, was for $85,000 to mature in 15 years at 6% interest. The bonds were all retired by 1964. The new school opened October 13, 1961 with 246 pupils and a faculty consisting of a principal and 12 teachers.
