MOOREFIELD HOMEMAKERS
by Mrs. Joe Blount

The Moorefield Homemakers met Thursday, Jan. 2, at the home of Mrs. Joe Smart with Mrs. Herman Vice as co-hostess.

Mrs. James Hamm, vice-president, presided in absence of our president, Mrs. Harvey Wilson. 17 members answered the roll-call. Mrs. Joe Smart gave the devotional.

Mrs. Frank Weaver gave the lesson, "Color in Your Home" which was very interesting. This is the time of year many people start planning their decorating schemes and color is a very important part in decorating. Light and bright color or shades are very popular, especially if your rooms are small or dark.

Mrs. W. J. Clark led the group in recreation. An auction was held to make money for the 4-H Camp fund. Mrs. Howard Irvin was the auctioneer.

Our next meeting will be February 6, with Mrs. W. J. Clark and Mrs. Mable Becker as hostess. It will be our Valentine party and gifts will be exchanged.
