

School Growth

Fankfort—A recent report released by the Kentucky Department of Education reflects the biggest decade of expansion in Kentucky high school education on all fronts. While revealing a bigger and better program in are a total of 79 graduates in 1963 in comparison to 52 in 1953. This is a gain of 27 graduates, or 51.9 per cent, since 1953. Senior classes (11 grade) in Nicholas County had 64 members this year. "The high birth rate of 1946 and the peak birth rate of 1947 have accounted for the record class of graduates this year is 8,069 more than the previous high of 28,140 in 1963, Dr. D. E. Elswick, research director said. In Nicholas County, there

PAPER NIAGARA

Businessmen today are probably more concerned with a paperwork explosion than the dropping of a bomb.

There is a very good reason for this seemingly strange type of fear. The amount of paperwork demanded of business and industrial companies by the federal government has grown to such monstrous proportions that it has added heavily, and unfairly, to the cost of their operations.

A particular case—but by no means an isolated one—was cited by Rep. Arnold Oleser (D.-Mont.), chairman of the House Subcommittee on Census and Government Statistics to show how unbelievably onerous is the paper workload imposed by governmental decree.

In a single year, Rep. Oleser said, a midwest manufacturing concern was compelled to handle 173 different federal forms which involved the filing of 37,683 reports. Some had to be submitted daily, others weekly, monthly and annually.

The workload amounted to 483,285 man hours, a very costly procedure in view of the fact that this work was completely non-productive as far as sales were concerned.

Two other examples are also noteworthy. A mail-order company reported it was required to fill out and file more than 500,000 forms and reports with assorted governmental agencies and a savings and loan society said that its 600 member associations had to file a grand total of 5,300,000 forms in one year.

If this onslaught of compulsory governmental paper work is allowed to go unchecked the time could come when businessmen will be so occupied with filing reports that they won't have time to do

of 100 students or more and 20 others with 90 to 100 members. These 120 public high schools represent 84.9 per cent of the 349 complete high schools. And in these schools are 22,041 seniors of a total of 83,306 in public schools, or 69.2 per cent, two of every three seniors in public schools.

ated that for a camping trip. For the women of the family, a light-weight suit can serve for many occasions; for example, the skirt and blouse can be worn for travel, with the jacket added on cool days or for evening wear. Jacket and dress or dresses with awashers also can provide comfort for vacation travel.

Men usually are more sensible about this than women. Women and girls need low heels for traveling and walking and a pair of pumps for dress-up wear. And make sure you don't start with new shoes. Hats are not worn as much as they once were, although one usually is necessary for church. Scarves and nets will help to keep hair in place while driving or sight-seeing. And, anywhere you go, a plastic raincoat and hat will be come during sudden summer showers. Should shorts be worn for travel? This depends on the individual's proportions—how he or she looks in shorts, and on how the shorts is traveling. Shorts might be acceptable if you travel by private car but
