MASTER COMMISSIONER'S SALE
NICHOLAS CIRCUIT COURT
PEOPLES INDUSTRIAL PLAN OF COVINGTON, a corporation, PLANTIFF
VS: NOTICE OF SALE
JOE C. TIMBERLAKE, DEFENDANT

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Nicholas Circuit Court, entered on May 22nd, 1964 in the above styled action, the undersigned Master Commissioner of said Court will, on the 13th day of June, 1964, at or about the hour of 2:00 o'clock P. M., at the Court House door, in Carlisle, Kentucky, offer for sale to the highest and best bidder, on a credit of six and twelve months from date of sale, the following described property:

"A certain tract or parcel of land lying in Pickrellville, Nicholas County, Kentucky, and bounded and described as follows: On the south by the lot of Peter Tee; on the West by the lot of Dan-iel Jones; on the north by the lot of H. M. Taylor and on the East by the Cross Street of said village." Being the same property conveyed to Joe C. Timberlake by Jasper Groves and wife, by deed dated June 7, 1952, recorded in Deed Book 54, Page 58, records of the Nicholas County Court Clerk's office.

Upon the sale of the above described property, the purchase price will be payable in six and twelve months in equal installments from date of sale, and bearing interest at the rate of six percent per annum from date of sale until paid, for which deferred payments the purchaser shall execute bonds payable to the Master Commissioner with surety to be approved by said Commissioner. Said bonds shall have the force and effect of a judgment, and shall remain a lien on the property sold until fully paid. Upon approval of the sale, the purchaser shall have the privilege of paying the whole of the purchase price in cash, or may pay any or all of the deferred payments before maturity with accrued interest to the date of payment.

The purchaser of said property shall have possession thereof on or before July 1, 1964, and said purchaser shall pay all taxes due on the property for the year 1964.

The Master Commissioner's report of sale will be filed within three days after the date of sale, and if no exceptions to the sale are filed within said three day period, same will be approved and confirmed.

Joseph F. Conley, Master Commissioner, M.C.C.

Judy Whitaker Attending 18th Session Girls State

The Nicholas County delegate to the Kentucky Girls State is Miss Judy Whitaker who went Monday to the University of Kentucky. Approximately 300 high school girls from all parts of the state began the 18th session of this convention.

The convention, continuing through Saturday, is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. During the six days of meetings, discussions and forums, the girls will study the principles of free speech, free assembly and American government.

Sessions throughout the week will aquaint the delegates with the problems encountered in seeking office, constructing a party platform and winning votes. The two mythical parties—Federalists and Nationalists—will select the governor of Girls Sate on Wednesday.

One of the highlights of the session will be the Friday morning inauguration of the elected "governor" in the state Capitol at Frankfort.

Gov. E. T. Breathitt and cabinet will address the girls explaining the duties of each elected official.

After a tour of the Governor's mansion, the girls will return to Lexington for the Inaugurarl Banquet with the delegates providing entertainment for the program.

Miss Whitaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chad Whitaker, has completed her junior year at Nicholas County High. She is a member of the National Honor Society, school paper staff, F.H.A., Tri-Hi-Y, and French Club. She has been a cheerleader for three years and was elected the F.F.A. Sweetheart 1963-64. Last year she was the Blackberry Festival Queen. Miss Whitaker is also active in the youth organization, the C.Y.F., and the Moorefield Christian Church.

Sue Irvine Starts Trip to Norway Friday

Sue Irvin, an International Farm Youth Exchange delegate, leaves for Norway on June 19. She will stop in Washington D. C. at the National 4-H Club Foundation center for an orientation period before leaving from New York City.

Sue will be gone approximately six months — returning home the first part of December.

Sue said, "I am very appreciative, not only for the contributions given me, but for the interest in the IFYE program which prompted these donations. It will be an incentive for me to work harder to let the people know what we in America are really like and to share with you, the people in Nicholas County and the state of Kentucky, my experiences while living in Norway as an IFYE."

An IFYE (International Farm Youth Exchange student) is a grass-root ambassador whose purpose is to promote world peace through better understanding of the people in other countries.

Sue expresses her appreciation to the following individuals and organizations who helped make this trip possible. In addition to the $1000 from the county, the National 4-H Club Foundation contributes $2000.

Her family and friends who made personal contributions; Dr. Wendell Kingsolver, Mrs. Harvey Bromagen, Raymond Wesley, Moorefield Christian Church, Moorefield Methodist Church, Quatre AS 4-H Club, Nicholas Club, Headquarters 4-H Club, Fleming-Mason RECC, Rotary Club, Eastern Ky. Production Credit Association, Nicholas County Homemakers, Nicholas County 4-H Council, Nicholas County Utopia Club, Nicholas County Farm Bureau, Harrison County RECC, A. V. Allison, Mrs. R. T. Brayfield, Russell Shrout, Younger Woman's Club, Kentucky Utilities Co., Deposit Bank, First National Bank, Mrs. Ruth Osborn, Carlisle West Homemakers, Mrs. Otha Lawson, Mrs. Gilbert Gray, Mrs. Jack Alexander, Mrs. Frank Henry, and those who worked, contributed food, sold tickets, purchased tickets or donated in anyway to the Community Benefit Dinner and to Mrs. Bobby Campbell and Mrs. Jeannie Grannis for the program. Mrs. Campbell was a former IFYE to Norway a few years ago.

Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Irvin, Moorefield.
