Yes We're Proud Too...

And we were quite surprised when we learned that the Carlisle Junior Chamber of Commerce had voted to award us an Honorary Membership in their progressive organization. We can't truthfully say when President Eugene Kelly presented us with a plaque the other evening that we didn't know what was coming, but then, even as when we first learned of the honor, we were speechless, except for a thank you.

To us this honor is not something to be taken lightly, we are pleased to be affiliated with this group of men between the ages of 21 and 35 who have shown this community in less than a year that we have the ability, thoughtfulness and unselfishness.

Many are the accomplishments of these energetic workers—eight air conditioners at the Nicholas County Hospital, road repairs on all the county roads, scoreboard at the football field, doing all the hard work of producing the annual Christmas parade, the enjoyable Jaycee Horse Show from which funds derived are used for worthwhile projects and etc.

We think we all have one thing in common, each with his own way is working toward a better community.

Yes we are proud too, to join Mayor William W. Power, County Attorney Charles M. Cox and anyone who this organization may choose to honor.

How Can We?

We note in one U. S. Congressman's column on the slumps and begin with a statement, "We should reach that old phrase to 'Don't save a penny'." We had to add, how can we, when the House votes themselves a $700 million a year salary increase.

things are lots of fun for youngsters—but often after the stops and begins again in a "Happy Birthday" at a complete loss for words and the tears flow freely from the eyes of the young men and women friends from Carlisle. Others in the group included Mrs. Cecil Hamilton, Mrs. Mary Lawrence, Mrs. Eddie Barbee and Mrs. Myrtle Price.

Yes, Gladys sent me some of her birthday cakes —Yaps—All... Chicago for a visit with her brother and sisters before coming to Carlisle.

the same time, so the reservation system was streamlined and here is how it stands at present.

To make a reservation you simply dial Capitol 2-2228 (Area Code 502) and the central office in Frankfort will give you an up-to-the-minute reservation situation at any of the State Parks.

Reservations have been opened to the central office of the Department of Parks and Recreation, 801 Louisville (583-0078), and Lexington (252-4913).

And if you telephone the park direct, the clerk can refer you to the central office for the needed information while you are still on the line.

Next! Well, just one more way Kentucky has of showing her hospitality to all those who wish to visit one of her now famous State parks and resorts.

AMERICAN HERITAGE PART OF BOY SCOUTS PROGRAM
The Blue Grass County, Boy Scouts of America, announced that they will participate in a nationwide Strengthen America's Heritage program through June and July. The purpose of the program is to help in Scouting and people of the central Kentucky area were aware of their American heritage.

A total of 107 teachers from 42 Kentucky counties have been awarded scholarships to the University of Kentucky College of Education, where they will spend the summer preparing to teach mentally and physically handicapped children in their home communities.

The scholarships were made possible by a $20,000 grant from the WIAS Campaign for Children. Five other teachers also have been awarded scholarships to the special training program by United Cerebral Palsy of Kentucky.
