Fay Heads MD Appeal

Fire Chief Charles Fay is serving as Canister Chairman during the 1964 Annual Appeal for Muscular Dystrophy in Nicholas County. The announcement was made by Thelma Stovall, Secretary of State, and State Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc. Campaign Chairman for the eighth consecutive year.

Accepting the responsibility of distributing the hour glass canisters in stores and businesses, Chief Fay said,

"Muscular Dystrophy is a mysterious disease which progressively invades the voluntary muscles, eventually weakening and disabling its victims to the point where a minor ailment, like a cold, may prove fatal."

Chief Fay further added, "For these reasons, it is important that our Canister Campaign be highly successful and only you can make this possible by dropping in your contributions.
