By Journalism Class
Friday was "Sadie Hawkins" day. The girls wore long skirts and blue jeans to promote the dance, which was held Saturday night at the Carlisle Armory. The dance was sponsored by the Pep Club.

F.H.A. held its regular meeting, Wednesday morning in the gymnasium, new members were initiated. Eddie Day was elected Chapter Director. F.H.A. also met in the agriculture room and the Student Council met on the stage.

On Friday, Nov. 20, there will be a donkey-basketball game sponsored by the F.H.A. The first game will feature boys from Ag. I and Ag. II. Managers of these are Kent Mann and Larry Hinton. These two classes will play the Ag. III and Ag. IV classes. Managers of these are Eddie Day, Coleman Phillips. Players from these classes are undetermined. We are looking for big crowd. It will be quite enjoyable.

The N.C.H.S. Dramatics Arts Class is now working on two plays to be given to the public. They are "The Judgment of Greel" and "Teapot on the Rocks". The cast of "The Judgment of Greel" is Judy Whitaker, Eddie Gillinson, Donna Berry, Eddie Price, Bobbie Reid and Johnny Smith. In the cast of "Teapot on the Rocks" is Carol Marshall, Paula Storey, Marshall Stone, Vaughn Frey and Bobbie Reid.

The Juniors are now selling tooth brushes in order to raise enough money to go on their senior trip.
The Mechanical Drawing Club had a meeting Wednesday. The members for the club were drawn up by the chairman David Simon.
Attending the cheer-leaders luncheon at Richmond were the varieties and junior high cheerleaders from Nicholas County High School. Junior High cheerleaders attending for the first time were Patricia Craig, Sherry Cord, Lorraine Fry, Donna Gunn, Lanna Vaughn and Jane Talbert.
Miss Truman Richcy, our librarian attended a state library conference last Thursday and Friday.
