Senator Goldwater says: "I would put nuclear weapons in the hands of local commanders of NATO."

Johnson on Extremism: "Let us put an end to the teachings of hate and evil violence. Let us turn away from the fanatics of the far left and the far right, from the apostles of bitterness and bigotry, from the defiant of law and those who pour venom into our nation's bloodstream."

Goldwater on Extremism: "Extremism . . . is no vice."

Johnson on Social Security: "Every American family will benefit by the extension of Social Security."

Goldwater on Social Security: "Social Security has been weakening individual personality and self-reliance."

Johnson on Poverty: "This Administration now declares unconditional war on poverty . . . our aim is not only to relieve its symptoms, but to cure and prevent it."

Goldwater on Poverty: "The government must begin to withdraw from social welfare programs, education, public power, agriculture and public housing."

What's More Important Than The Children Of Nicholas County?

- During the past eighteen years the Nicholas County Board of Education has never had a deficit and has met its obligations on time. There are only four counties in the state of Kentucky that have a lower percentage of bonded indebtedness than Nicholas County. They are Anderson, Clay, Nelson and Pike Counties. The schools have been operated financially sound and economically.
- The board has retired all of the indebtedness on the buildings at Moorefield, Headquarters and Paris and the only outstanding bonds are on the Nicholas County High School.
- After the merger with Carlisle the indebtedness for the Carlisle District was retired in January 1964 leaving that district debt free. The tax rate for Carlisle has been reduced eleven cents as you will observe if you will compare last year's tax bill and the one you received in the past few weeks for this year's tax.
- Two new schools have been constructed and Nicholas County now has a high school with ample parking space and grounds that are well lighted so that the public may gather for better indoor or outdoor activities. These facilities are used many times during each year by all of the people of Nicholas County.
- The Piger land has been purchased so that the schools may expand in the future and the income from the farm and the rentals of the buildings have more than financed the purchasing plan of the additional land.

- Presently, an addition is being planned for the high school which will make our facilities equal to the other high schools in adjoining counties.
- All of the schools of the County have the best ratings given by Kentucky and the Southern Association of Schools.
- More Nicholas County High School graduates each year are entering the Colleges and Universities of Kentucky and of other states than in prior years. They are making outstanding records of which we are all proud.
- The Board owns all of its school buses except one and replaces two or more each year with new buses. Buses are inspected monthly and all effort is made to provide safe transportation. SAFETY is stressed at all times.
- This year, each school has an excellent principal and the percentage of attendance has increased and children are learning because each school is conducted in an orderly manner.
- We try to provide equal opportunities for all children and maintain the best conditions possible for good schools.
- The Nicholas County School System has the longest record of any county in the state of having its schools staffed with legally qualified teachers. Every teacher this year holds a college degree. Good teachers make good schools.

The dozen items above are just a few of the reasons you have for being proud of your School Board, your Basketball Team, your Football Team, your Future Farmers of America Club, your Future Homemakers of America, your Debator, your Orator, the National Honor Society, and the many groups that represent you and your school.

We cannot always win, but there are no occasions on which we cannot be justly proud of the children who represent our school.

We feel we have had a part in making it possible for the children of Nicholas County to hold their heads high and always give their best. We ask your support as members of the Nicholas County Board of Education so that we can continue to offer the best opportunities possible for all of the school children of Nicholas County.
