

NCHS NEWS

by Rita Hunter and Nancy Booth

"Oh! Isn't it pretty, where do I go now?" These are just a few of the phrases heard last week at Nicholas County High as students finally began moving into the new building.

Friday, the seniors were very happy to receive senior pictures and see the way they really look!

At the regular meeting of the FFA & FFA this month they had a Christmas party and refreshments.

The speech department seems to be very good this year, they have attended several tournaments and last Thursday they attended a speech clinic at Morehead State

With new uniforms the NCHS majorettes lead the way at the band performance for the Paris and Carlisle Christmas parades, they are now working on selections for a Christmas concert.

A new cafeteria, good food, and beautiful voices of the NCHS choir highlighted the annual Teachers Banquet held last Thursday.

The FFA went carolling Monday night, and later enjoyed refreshments served by the Chapter Mothers.

NCHS is very proud of its basketball team this season, so far they have defeated Estill Co., Falmouth, Tollenboro, and MMI.
