

Dance Hall

A dance hall here by any name is a particular premise.

This based upon the testimony here today, a serious traffic hazard to the public safety of persons traveling on the roads which are narrow and crooked.

75 to 90 percent more collisions and traffic complaints were made to the officers of both counties than during the period when game was not in operation.

That said premises are located in an out of the way corner of the County and not regularly patrolled by the Sheriff of Nicholas County, who has only one Deputy at his disposal, not by the State police who do not patrol the road of this county.

11. That the applicant, Leonard Snapp, has produced evidence in a lease from the said Mack Ritchie, leasing said premises to him for purposes of operating a dance hall and leasing to the said Leonard Snapp, the adjoining restaurant which is separated therefrom by only a door, also to be operated by the said Leonard Snapp on any night that the said Mack Ritchie will continue to operate the fishing lake and in all probability will operate the restaurant upon some occasions when same is not open.

12. That the said Mack Ritchie will continue to operate the fishing lake and in all probability will operate the restaurant upon some occasions when same is not open.

13. That these particular premises have become notorious, in fact, almost famous, in Nicholas County. That the evidence strongly indicates collusion between the applicant and the owner, Mack Ritchie, whose license was previously revoked and whose later request was denied.

14. That due to the lack of proper police protection the safety, welfare, and morals of that particular community would be in jeopardy as a reason of the operation of

School Bus Struck By Skidding Car

A school bus en route to pick up children was struck by a skidding car on the snow-slick U.S. 68 here Tuesday, Dec. 21.

Stane Tucker Kenneth Swartz, was on the bus and neither he nor the driver of the car, Joseph D. Rogers of Olive Hill, was injured.

The bus was not damaged, and the car was damaged only slightly, the trooper reported.

Two wrecks occurred at the corner of North and School Avenue, Thursday afternoon, Dec. 23, about 8:45 according to Police Chief Eugene Kelley.

Carline Police Chief Eugene Kelley said the breakdown on usage occurred Tuesday, Dec. 21, and broke off a utility pole. The car was badly damaged and Gillin suffered only a cut on one ear.

The officer also reported that a car driven by Kash House hit the rear end of one driven Moorefield, damaging a rear window and a rear fender, but no one was injured.

THREE KENTUCKY STANDBY BURLIES REMOVED FROM CERTIFICATION LIST

Lexington, Ky.—Three famous old Kentucky burlie varieties have been removed from the Kentucky certified list, the University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service agronomy department said this week.

These dropped are KY 9, KY 35 and KY 41-A, says Ira Maasie, tobacco specialist.

He noted their replacement was due to easy availability now of several varieties superior to these three.

"They filled KY 9, KY 35 and KY 41-A with a gas line resulted in first and second degree burns to Mark Spitzer, the trooper reported.
