

Farm Bureau Reaffirms Stand on 'Medicare'
By Terry Bennett
The American Farm Bureau Federation took a firm stand against increased social security taxes beyond that already provided for in the law and to any additional benefits, such as the proposed medical care program. The need for medical insurance should be met by the expansion of private insurance programs, the delegates said at the 46th annual meeting of the organization in Philadelphia.

SOIL CONSERVATION ESSAY WINNERS—Last week M. F. Theisfeld of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service and Mary Henry, secretary-treasurer of the Nicholas SCD board of directors, presented cash awards and certificates to winners in the Carlisle Elementary School essay contest. From left are: Raymond Wesley, County School Superintendent, congratulating the winners and placed them in picture-taking. Winners were Ann Bunden and Kay Theisfeld, 2nd and 1st grade winners in the 6th grade; respectively, and Patricia Scapp and Dana Cooney, 1st and 2nd place winners in the 4th grade; respectively. From left, top row: Hope Walden, 1st in 5th grade; Barbara Kingsolver and Sam Cameron, 1st in 5th grade; Barbara Kingsolver and Sam Cameron, 1st in 5th grade; respectively. In the fourth grade, back row, Vickie Crawford and June Small, 1st and 2nd place, respectively, in the sixth grade, and Pat Cooley, 2nd in the fifth grade.

The Car and The Highway

Probably no other invention has had a greater impact on the American economy and society. The automobile industry has created millions of jobs, helped raise wages and the standard of living of all Americans. Motor vehicles have become distance-shrinkers and time-savers as we travel over the greatly improved highways. Why is hearing about cars so important? For one thing, more than 70 million cars and trucks operate on our streets and highways today. More than 3/4 of all families in the U.S. own cars. Another reason is that an automobile represents a large investment.

any more than a child can play with matches without getting burned. Morality is not something we put on when we dress for church on Sunday morning, and then hang in the closet when we get home. Morality is what we are by day, what we are in our innermost thoughts, what we are when we think no one is looking. A clean life—like a clean surgeon's scalpel—is the one tool needed for every job. Rehabilitation Is New Emphasis

The new emphasis in Selective Service is its rehabilitation program whereby the man rejected for armed service may receive vocational or physical fitness training to prepare him to serve his country if he then so desires. This was the one of the highlights talked about recently at a quarterly meeting of Selective Service clerks in Area 9 comprising Central and Northern Kentucky.
