JOHNSON - BOOTH VOWS SPOKEN

In an enchanting candle-lit ceremony Miss Phyllis Carolyn Johnson became the bride of Gerard Raymond Booth, Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock p.m. December 20, in the chapel of First Christian Church. Miss Johnson is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Emmerson Johnson, and Mr. Booth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Long Booth; both families are Winfield residents.

The Reverend Joe Kennedy performed the double-ring ceremony, and Dr. George Hassard, accompanied by Mrs. Hassard at the organ provided the musical interlude.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length, six tiered gown of chantilly lace brushed with a filigree of rhinestones, and a waist-length mantilla of fragile, silk lace. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried an austerely beautiful spray of all white flowers, phalenopsis, orchids and stephanotis, attached to a creamed-moire encased bible.

Miss Charlene Morrison, of Lincoln, Nebraska served as Maid of Honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Grace Ann Booth, Miss Nancy Hittle, both of Winfield, and Miss Debra Miller, of Memphis, Tenn. The attendants all were floor length dresses of varied subtle shades of rose velvet, from a blushed-pink to a deep crimson, with matching veils of illusion net attached to velvet bows, and each one carried a nosegay of pale alizarin carnations pierced by single sweetheart roses.

Ingrid Winblad, and Barbara Schwenson preceded the bride as flower girls, and they too carried out the rose-bowered coloration with similar gowns of cerise velvet; and each carried a netting basket of rose petals. Mr. David Summers of Coffeyville served as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Phillip Johnson and Mark Johnson, brothers of the bride, Gilbert Gentry, of Winfield, Kansas and James Basile, of Topeka.

Mrs. Marvin Johnson, mother of the bride, wore a street-length dress of soft blue embossed crepe, with matching accessories; her corsage was of pink carnations, bordering single roses. Mrs. James Booth, mother of the groom, chose a tea piece dress of ice-blue, silk brocade, with light blue accessories, and wore a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church, following the wedding.

For her going away ensemble, the bride chose a brown, wool crepe suit, with matching accessories. Her corsage was of bronze cymbidium orchids. After a short southern honeymoon the couple plan to continue their studies at Emporia State College.

McCormick, of Seaman, Ohio, Mrs. Paul Damiro and daughter, Teresea, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Angus Jacobs and Erneat Jacobs, Moorefield.

MCKINNEY - CRUMP MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. George W. McKinney, of 280 East Main Street, Paris, announce the marriage of their daughter Wanda Faye to Donnie C. Crump son of Mrs. Ira Crump, of Indianapolis, Ind., and of Paul Crump, of Bourbon County.

The wedding took place at the Trinity Baptist Church in Lexington, Kentucky on December 19, 1964 at 3:30, with the Rev. Bob Brown officiating in the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. McKinney, of Lexington were the couples only attendants.

Mrs. Crump wore a white sheath dress with cranberry accessories and had a white orchid corsage tied with a cranberry ribbon.

Mrs. McKinney wore a light blue suit with matching accessories and had a corsage of yellow rose buds.

Mrs. Crump is employed by the Bourbon County School System and Mr. Crump in engaged in business with his father.

The couple have recently returned from a wedding trip to Georgia and Florida and are now residing in their new home on the Clintonville road.

Mrs. Crump in the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Doyle, of Nicholas County.

In Appreciation

I am nearing the end of my second term as Clerk of the Nicholas County Court. I appreciate the confidence that you my friends and citizens of Nicholas County have expressed toward me by your support and votes in the past. I have worked hard to attend to the clerical affairs of the Fiscal Court at its meetings and otherwise.

I have made every effort to maintain an orderly office as recorder of the many and varied items and instruments subject to recordation.

The Office personnel and myself have always been glad to have seen you and we have made every effort to serve you pleasantly and efficiently.

I thank every one for being so cooperative and helpful, all of which has made my position as a public servant pleasant and enjoyable.

I will be a Candidate for re-election to the Office of Nicholas County Clerk in the coming 1965 elections. I ask for your continued support and election to this office, so that I may have the opportunity for further service to you and Nicholas County.

Sincerely,
J. Berry Burnaw
