Pressure Coming From The Left

The Ashland Daily Independent... As soon as Congress convenes...

These committees have done effective work in the past in uncovering Communist plotting...

Just what legislative steps will be undertaken to get yet clear, although one direct approach is sure to be taken in the years ahead...

Twenty & Forty-Five Years Ago

January 18, 1945... Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tucker and son, David...

From the Diary of a Country Editor

Soon come guests and to dinner, to which I do full justice always... I feel to be talking with both eyes and ears...

Mr. and Mrs. John Eads of Headwaters, received word Monday that their son, Pfc. James R. Eads had arrived safely in London.

BORN: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond announced the arrival of a son, Roger Lewis, born Jan. 8. He is their first born.

MARRIED: Miss Ida May Ryan, attractive and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ryan...

DIED: Herman Claude Moorehead, 44, and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moorehead...

WASHINGTON REPORT

The Nation's Capitol is bristling with activity. Many new members of Congress elected at the polls last November, arrived early to set up their offices...

Farm & Home

A brochure describing career prospects in the agriculture sciences... The U.S. Department of Agriculture has a number of openings...

"Farmers Tax Guide" prepared by the Internal Revenue Service to assist farmers in filing their 1944 federal income tax return...

If you're one of those impatient souls who can't wait for springtime... Select branches which have many flower buds. Cut the stems, remove bottom inch of bark...

Farmers should make plans now to repair and rebuild their pastures which in many areas during 1944, were the poorest they have been for a number of years.

Most enjoyable event of the season was the county circus, which they were to town.
