Homecoming At Frankfort

Frankfort -- The citizens of Nicholas County have been invited to Kentucky's statewide homecoming at Frankfort, June 4,5 and 6 , by special invitation of Governor Edward T. Breathitt and the Capital City's Mayor James Flynn.

"We want everyone to come, " Flynn said this week. "This is the statewide homecoming site for 1965 Homecoming Year and there will be plenty of fun for everyone, including a parade, beauty contest, dancing and movie."

"In addition, we are celebrating Kentucky's 174th birthday during our homecoming, and this is cause for everyone to come and join in the festivities."

Flynn and Breathitt also issued a joint invitation to Nicholas County Judge Floyd Clark to represent the county as an honored guest.

Judge Clark has been asked to name a queen to represent the county. Her name, along with those of other county candidates from across the state, will be placed in a container from which Governor Breathitt will draw the name of Kentucky's 1965 Homecoming Queen.

Breathitt said he is looking forward to visiting with the county judges and their families, the county queens and all Kentuckians during the three-day homecoming.

The City of Frankfort the Frankfort -Franklin County Chamber of Commerce and State government are hosting the statewide homecoming. Invitations from the Chamber to Kentucky's 120 county Judges went out May 15. A follow-up letter from the Frankfort Younger Woman's Club went out May 15.

A formal invitation from Governor Breathitt was mailed May 18, inviting the county judges and their families to a reception at the Governor's Mansion, at 4;30 p.m., June 5. A staff of committee workers will call each county judge personally during the week of May 24, and a telegram will be sent to each county judge the week of May 31.

The county judges will be received and recognized at the Capotial grounds ceremonies attended by city, state, and county dignitaries. Later, with their families and the county queens, they will be guests at a reception given by the Governor in the Governor's Mansion.

Congratulations

and

Nicholas County

You can be truly proud of Lake Carnico. Many communities have dreamed of such a project but few have been able to realize the dream come true.

To those who have worked so hard to accomplish such a wonderful recreational area for the community our hats are off to each and every one of them.

WE JUST HEARD THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT RECENTLY ISSUED A 5¢ STAMP honoring "The American Homemaker." We think it's a great idea! We're definitely in favor of recognizing those ladies who cook, and scrub, and mend, and iron, and rake care of the kids, and do all those jobs that keep homes happy. What's more, we know a way to make life a little easier for those busy ladies . . . extension phones. In kitchens, and bedrooms, and dens, and hallways . . . all the places where homemakers spend a lot of time. Try extension telephones and see how much easier life will be. Just call our Business Office and ask about phones in styles and colors to suit your needs.
