Moorefield Church Scene Of Whitaker-Compton Vows

Moorefield Christian Church was the scene of a double ring ceremony before a background of palms, white roses and smiragrons with lighted candelabra. A program of wedding music was presented by Edgar Allison, organist. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional family floor length gown of ivory satin, with detachable chapel train trimmed with imported lace, fitted bodice with long sleeves ending in a point at the wrist and covered satin buttons on the jacket and lapels. Imported, laced, trimmed the portrait neckline. A post-tipped hand fashioned organza robe held the multi-colored illusion veil. She carried a white Bible topped with white rose buds and supported with velvet streamers.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Cliff Vice, Jr., sister of the bride. She wore a brocade tulle bodice and short sleeves with full matching pleated skirt. Her headpiece was a matching bow with illusion. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Nicholas County High School. He is employed by the A. O. Smith and Co. in Mt. Sterling.

The bridesmaids were Miss Sue Irvin, Moorefield; Mrs. Jimmy Shaw, Carlisle, sister of the bride; Mrs. Dewey Compton, Mt. Sterling, sister-in-law of the groom; and junior bridesmaid Miss Deborah Vice, niece of the bride, Carlisle. They wore outfits and carried flowers identical to that of the bride attendant.

Mrs. L. C. Whitaker, daughter of Mr. Lee Whitaker of Moorefield and Barona Lee Compton, son of Mr. The Dr. Paul A. Crow Jr. of Lexington officiated at the double ring ceremony before a background of palms, white roses and smiragrons with lighted candelabra.

After a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains the couple will reside in Carlisle.

The bride is a graduate of Nicholas County High School. She is employed by the First National Bank in Carlisle.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Sharpburg High School and is employed by the A. O. Smith and Co. in Mt. Sterling.

When school's out... hot water is "in"

If there's any nice black mud in the neighborhood, children will find it. And with school out, you can let them find even more. This means one thing - hot water in the bathtub, laundry, floor scrubbing - summer adds to all of them. And therefore adds to your need for a fast-recovery electric water heater.

Flameless, cordless, safe, an electric water heater can be installed almost anywhere. Take this one month's trip up to the joy of total electric heat.

WINS WORLD'S FAIR TRIP - Mrs. Elna Ford of Waco, Ky., won the trip offered by Lennam. The winning ticket, drawn by Miss Barbara Shelby at Bill Townsend of the Lovable Company, co-sponsor of the contest. Mr. Ford registered at the Richmond store.

When we arrived at the University of Kentucky, we were assigned to Holmes Hall to prepare for the week's adventure. That afternoon, and the entire week, I participated in the Inspirational Hour which was very enjoyable and a great honor. The speakers were Sam Vander Meer, better known as Uncle Sam, General Assembly held Monday night was a "Get Acquainted Party" with a welcome from Dr. Libbert Ockerman.

Tuesday morning the Honorable John Palmore began the governmental session by speaking to us on "Issues Facing Young Men and Women in the 4-H Organizations." They were divided into joint sessions and then again into small groups. That night we heard the candidates speech and for entertainment the district championship talent acts performed. Wednesday morning the 4-H Club recognition and campus awards. In the afternoon I was in charge of two special interest choice sessions which were on the Older Youth Conference at Washington, D. C. In the evening we had a film and also special talent of delegates who were at the conference. I was honored to play the organ in this event.

The Deposit Bank President To Retire June 30

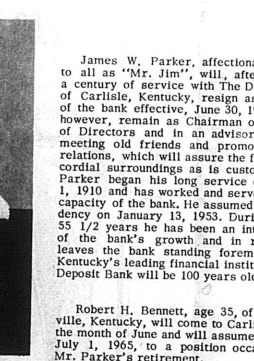

Mr. "Jim"

James W. Parker, affectionately known to all as "Mr. Jim", will, after over half a century of service with The Deposit Bank of Carlisle, Kentucky, resign as President of the bank effective, June 30, 1965, he will however, remain as Chairman of the Board of Directors and in an advisory capacity, meeting old friends and promoting public relations, which will assure the friendly and cordial surroundings as is customary. Mr. Parker began his long service on January 1, 1910 and has worked and served in every capacity of the bank. He assumed the Presidency on January 13, 1953. During the past 55 1/2 years he has been an integral part of the bank's growth and in retiring he leaves the bank standing foremost among Kentucky's leading financial institutions. The Deposit Bank will be 100 years old in 1966.

Robert H. Bennett, age 35, of Pleasureville, Kentucky, will come to Carlisle during the month of June and will assume his duties July 1, 1965, to a position occasioned by Mr. Parker's retirement.

Mr. Bennett will move his family, consisting of his wife, Deborah and two sons, Wayne, age 13 and Mark, age 8, to a house known as Ted Insko, in Liberty Heights, a suburb of Carlisle.

Mr. Bennett and family are members of the Baptist Church, church in which he has served as Sunday School teacher, Deacons and Chairman of the Board. Recently and soon accepting employment with
