STORE ENTERED

Sheriff William R. Dolins and deputy Maurice Cameron were called to the East Union store after a break-in thought to be about 1:30 a.m. March 10. Cecil Stone owner, reported that a quantity of meat, canned goods, cigarettes, a roll of wrapping paper and a pinball machine had been broken into. Sheriff Dolins stated that the loss would be about $500. Entrance was gained by prizing the front door open.
