Those HAYCORN DAYS
Oh would I were a boy again...

Soon now will come Spring, bearing her gifts of gold and green...

Teachers, we trust, have more human understanding of boys these days...

To the grown-up boy, who thrills to setting his line, seeing the minnow as a minnow...

There was not so much sleep as usual that night, but it was repaid by a delightful, if drowsy...

TWENTY AND FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Thursday, March 29, 1945
The annual sunrise Easter pageant will be given at 9:30 Eastern Sunday morning in the Christian Church.

Letter to Editor
The Carlisle Mercury does not print in its Readers' Comment column letters which are received without signatures.

Farm & Home

Spring flowering trees and shrubs should not be pruned now. Pruning at this time removes flower buds that would bloom in the spring...

As time goes on and I grow older, I grow fonder of my old home town of Carlisle and cherish more and more my memory of boyhood and youth...

Why do termites swarm? As the weather gets warmer, temperature and humidity changes react termite colonies in the soil...

Termites live in the soil and the workers leave the colonies by way of earthen tubes, to feed on wood...

There are 24 categories which club members can choose from: animal science, agriculture, economics, agronomy, girls' electric, boys' electric, engineering, sewing, clothing, dairy science, entomology, farm meal, dairy foods, breadmaking, other foods, horticulture, home life, home management, horticulture, photography, poultry, recreation, safety, and social science.
