Wbaley Asks For Understanding During Farm-City Week Event

Farm-City Week is being observed in Carlisle and Nicholas County according to Charles Whaley, chairman of the committee in charge of the week-long event. Farm-City week which extends from Nov. 19 through Nov. 25 (Thanksgiving Day to the United States), is an international observance aimed at promoting better understanding between farm and city residents.

This will be the 11th Annual observance of Farm-City Week in Kentucky. Our state has had one of the most successful programs in the entire United States, and we want to keep up the good work.

Bill Faden, Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, Louisville, is the 1965 State Farm-City Committee Chairman. "I want to urge all citizens of Kentucky to participate in their local Farm-City programs. Never before has it been so important for every Kentuckian to work together. If Kentucky is to continue to grow economically, we must all join hands to work for a common goal—a better Kentucky for every Kentuckian."

Mr. Faden's statement says, "Let's make Farm-City Week activities in Nicholas County the biggest and best ever. We can do this with all of us
