Headquarters Revival
Oct. 14 - 24

Rev. Dick Heals will be preaching the revival meetings in Headquarters Methodist Church, which will be the evangelist; Charles T. Wright of Lexington, will be the song leader and Mrs. Sterling Blake will be the organist.

Evangelist Heals comes to Headquarters with high recommendations from various parts of the nation. Trained for the ministry, he has been studying for the ministry. In 1960 he graduated from Houghland College of Houghland, New York with the B.A. degree. Two years later, in 1962 he graduated from Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Ky. with the B. D. degree.

Mr. Heals is a member of the Methodist Church and is actively engaged in lay evangelism in the two-area of singing and preaching. His ministries have taken him into camp meetings, church revivals, civic clubs, high school assemblies and on radio broadcasts. He has worked in over two hundred states and in Canada during the past few years of his full time ministry of preaching.

Pastor E. H. Gaines and the members of Headquarters Methodist Church cordially invite the public to come out to these services. There will be a youth service at 6:30 p.m. each evening followed by the 7:00 p.m. evangelistic service. There will also be a morning Bible study service at 10:00 a.m. Monday through Friday (October 18-22).

Rev. T. F. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Middleboro, Kentucky will be the evangelist in revival services at Carlisle Baptist Church, October 18-24, 7:30 p.m. each evening.

Rev. Miller is a fervent preacher of the Bible. Come and let God thrill your heart each night.

Carlos Gruber, violinist of Nacogdoches, Texas will be leading in a great music service. Everyone invited.

HEADQUARTERS HOMEKAYERS
Mrs. Reynolds Allison October 20 we truly October's bright blue weather. The air was crisp and frost was on the pumpkins, while the Homekayers enjoyed a huge log fire in the spacious dining room at the 4-H Camp.

Mrs. Calvin Willis president gave the devotional and presided over the business meeting.

Roll call was answered by each member telling what they had brought for a dried flower arrangement.

When collection and birthday money was taken, we realized five of the ten members present had had a birthday. We also gave pennies for Friendship.

Detail plans were made for the trip to Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 28, to the Glass Factory.

Various chairman were called upon for reports, after lunch Mrs. Willis gave a report of the Governor's Tour at Blue Grass Industries which Allison attended representing our club that morning by each member telling what they had brought for a dried flower arrangement.

Ellen Davis, Homemaker Club gave the lesson. Plan your decorating, which was very interesting and helpful. We were told to consider the space and study the guides to decorating. When buying furniture the construction
