

OUT OUR WAY
By Lottie O'Bannon
The members of Wesley Chapel are grateful to Rev. C. A. Scripps for the chimes that have been placed in this historic old church. My weary traveler pause when he hears them and receive a spiritual lift.

Evening service at Wesley Chapel begins at 7 o'clock each Sunday night.

Service was held at the High Street Christian Church Sunday evening, Rev. I. H. Moore, pastor.

Mrs. Mary Williams and Joe Rice of Flemingsburg were married Wednesday night.

There was a Stanley party at the home of Mrs. Earl Brown Tuesday, Oct. 12.

Rev. J. V. Noel was in town for a few hours Wednesday.

Mrs. Laura Jones is in the Nicholas County Hospital.

HERE'S A GOOD STEER

Does this picture remind you of tending your land? Probably not, but it should.

It takes a lot of lime to build the bones and teeth in this sturdy animal and millions of others like him. They get it from the forage and grain crops they eat, which in turn take it from the soil. Lime-rich soils produce bigger crops of high-quality forage. That's why it's a good "steer" to use our agricultural limestone at regular intervals.
