Miss Jane Boyd Becomes Bride Of William Caywood

Miss Jane Russell Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell Boyd of Sharpsburg, and William Lewis Caywood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fox Caywood of North Middletown, were married at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Carlisle Christian Church.

The Rev. Randel O. Martin of Bethel, assisted by the Rev. John Murphy of North Middletown officiated at the double ring ceremony. Music was presented by Lowell Thomas Stevens Jr. of Lexington, vocalist, and Mrs. Ewell Arrasmith of Bethel, organist. The church was decorated with white mums, greenery and tapers in brass candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floorlength gown of candelight peau de soie fashioned with Alencon lace around the fitted bodice which had elbow-length sleeves. Lace was used down the side of the controlled A-line skirt with a Watteau back which flowed into a chapel train. Her bouffant veil was caught to a pillbox of fabric roses and embroidered petals highlighted with seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and ivy centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Gerald Wayne Atkinson of Atlanta, Ga., the matron of honor, wore a floor-length sheath of green stone peau de faille with a contrasting shade of cummerbund with an obi bow in the back. She wore a contour low on her head and carried a cascade of bronze spider mums.

The bridesmaids, in identical ensembles were Miss Patricia Sharp, Miss Patsy Ratliff, both of Sharpsburg; and Miss Willene Watkins, Columbus, Ga.

Lisa Ann Otte, neice of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a long white dress with green-stone sash and carried a basket of rose petals.

Mr. Caywood served his son as best man. The guests were seated by Thomas Buckner, Paris; Fred J. Farris, Winchester; Thomas F. Cooke, Ironton, Ohio; Bennie E. Bridges III, North Middletown, and Walter S. Meng III, North Middletown.

The reception was held at the church.

The bride is a graduate of Owingsville High School and attends Morehead State College where she is a member of Cwens and Gamma Theta Upsilon.
