Youth Night Proclaimed

The opening services of the "Morefield Method revival meetings brought good crowds. In spirit of expectancy is building up as the meetings progress through this week. The singing is at its best under the leadership of song-leader Carl Reich. The preaching of the Rev. Joe Alley is with authority and it is expected to feel the presence of God in the sanctuary.

During the last half of the meetings this week it is expected to see all the pews filled to capacity, and to overflow. Friday night has been proclaimed as "YOUTH NIGHT". All of the youth of the county and surrounding counties are invited to come with dates and friends to attend this special meeting-rally for them. There will be special music and a special message from the word of God for the youth of America today.

Every night there is a technical meeting with the 34,000 Methodist Parsonage. At 7:30 p.m., the main meetings with more than 19 denominational groups with more than 5,000 churches and 20,000 members.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pollock of Nolo, Ill., will be in charge of the music and children's work. Mr. Pollock is music director and soloist; Mrs. Pollock is a musician and children's worker. Outstanding leaders of music with instrumental organization are present for their third consecutive year. Everyone is invited to come and hear them.

Ellis Park Racing

Ellis Park's patrons will see the swiftest printers at the track.

Tent Caterpillar

Frankfort—The Kentucky Division of Forestry and the U.S. Forest Service will survey the extent of damage by the Eastern tent caterpillar in the state this summer. The survey will determine where the insects exist and inflict the heaviest damage and what natural controls are present. The caterpillars periodically defoliate exposed areas. Several garden clubs have expressed concern.
