Sexton's Grocery
This business, located on West Main Street opposite the Post Office, was opened by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sexton 19 years ago. The Sextons have had a business in Carlisle since 1923. Clyde was born in Men-fre County, and Ethel in Bourbon County. They both attended East Union school. They have two sons, Charles who is in the grocery and insurance business in Cynthia, and William Edward who is in charge of the Industrial Technology Department at Eastern State University, Richmond. William received his Masters degree from the University of Illinois, and his Doctorate from the University of Missouri. Both sons are graduates of Carlisle High School. Mr. and Mrs. Sexton are members of the Carlisle Christian Church where Clyde serves as Deacon on the Church board. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge, and Ethel is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary. The store sells all the usual items found in a grocery and an extensive selection of household needs. This is a "mom and pop" store which prides itself on personal service for those who like the extra effort. John King assists the Sextons on their busy weekends. As Clyde and Ethel say, "visit the store that is always busy".

THE STEPHEN FOSTER STORY by Harry Lovelace
The "Stephen Foster Story" is in its eighth season and still the smashing success it was eight summers ago. As a matter of fact, the drama is drawing 32 per cent higher attendance this season than it did the same month in 1965. This romantic story of the trials and tribulations of one of America's most beloved song writers is presented each evening except Mondays, at 8:30 p.m., through September 4 at My Old Kentucky Home State Park amphitheatre in Bardonia, Kentucky.
Pulitzer-prize winner Paul Green wrote the story and it is performed by a cast of 47, plus one musical dog who plays Old Dog Tray. The performers make the drama come alive with gay dances and brilliantly colorful costumes, and more than 50 Foster melodies ring out under the stars.
Reserved seats are $3, general admission $2, and children under 13 half price. For reservations write to The Stephen Foster Drama Association, P.O., Box 587, Hardston, Kentucky.
