

Home for Christmas

By Mrs. Bennett
The winter wind brought home the man and the woman. You want to check out the picture, dressed up and down, creating a background of water, pine and overhead stars.

They both pointed his finger. "We made a deal, little brother. You want to check out the picture, dressed up and down, creating a background of water, pine and overhead stars. I'll be ready, anytime you say. How about it?"

He said, "I don't think you would ride to leave home just before Christmas. Couldn't we just do a little while? We can run away any time. Let's go back just for Christmas. Then, I'll be ready, anytime you say. How about it?"

ABOUT HOLLY

Holly, like mistletoe, had age-old meaning for ancient Romans. The December festival called Mistletoe was a symbol of power and good will for children.

There is a symbol where holly is considered - Christ's blood (the red berries) and his crown of thorns.

Finns Different Foreigners, particularly the Finns, were often held as great in winter times, but not by the Finns. In Finland, the evergreen is considered a sign of mourning and the Finns use stars rather than evergreen for Christmas decorations.

RALLY ROUND... The Wassil Bowl, however often, is a traditional gathering spot during the holiday season. The greeting "Was Heit" as extended by Swedish Swedes meant "Your Health". The term eventually applied not only to the greeting but as well the connection which fitted the Wassil Bowl.

SWING AND SING WITH JOHNNY

By Chuck Pope
The big clock on the wall in the dining room at the home of Mrs. John and Mrs. Mary Carter looked like a clock that was about to stop.

John Carter smiled. "And Mr. Steadman's just stopped by to see me about his old friend who like to play Santa in the department store."

John and Mary Carter looked up from their coffee, each hesitatingly expecting their visitor to be Santa Claus without introduction.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

best wishes for the NEW YEAR

It came that they may have life, and have it abundantly. (John 10:10)

Let's forget the past with its failures or sorrows. The dark clouds of limitation fade away. Enjoy the present so that we may be filled with life, love, wisdom, peace and prosperity. Let's live abundantly for God's blessings flow to us from His bounty. Live in the awareness of God's presence and know that we are forever one with Him who is all abiding, from whom all blessings flow, through whom all needs are met.

PEACE SYMBOL
Modern youth may seem give it a thought, but the custom of kissing under the mistletoe supposedly began with the Romans, who considered the mistletoe a symbol of peace. Berries, nestled under the mistletoe were eaten. Roman warriors were expected to embrace and declare a truce. Roman conquerors usually came up with the kissing idea.
