a birthday in November and his mother made candy turkeys and snow men for us. She also brought ice cream and cake so we could celebrate his birthday with him.

We could hardly wait for Christmas to come. We were very busy during December making all sorts of Christmas decorations and learning poems and songs for our Christmas play. The decoration we liked best was our big Santa Claus heads that we made out of coat hangers. We used them to decorate our room for our Christmas party and later we took them home to hang in our windows and on our doors.

Our mothers and dads came to our play and party. They seemed to think we did real well in our first public performance. We were so glad that our parents and grandparents could come, but our most important guest was brought by our friend "Policeman Kelly," who came to blowing his whistle saying Santa had come. We were all so tickled to see him and to get to talk to him.

One day we got to see Ann Kingmeyer's two hamsters. She had them in a cage with food and water in it and Jennifer Watkins brought her pretty little gold fish. We had such fun watching their live pets.

In January Joe Darrell Raddell had a birthday and again we got to celebrate with our friend. His mother brought treats and took movies of us. She also brought each of us a little firman's hat which we all enjoyed wearing.

We had such fun one day when Miss Dottie used the tape recorder to record us singing and saying poems. It was so funny to listen to our voices on the recorder when she played it back for us. This month we have been studying about the Eskimo, their homes and their habits. We made an Eskimo boy with his spear.

We have been having so much fun acting-out the stories of the Three Little Pigs, Little Red Riding Hood and the Three Bears. "Miss Dottie" and "Miss Alma" think we are real good actors and actresses.

We got our "Kindergarten Progress Report Cards" for the first time and our mothers and daddys seemed real proud of us. It's such fun working, learning to share and playing together.

Jean-Pierre Filipinetti, driver of a $14,000 Mercedes, test-drove a '66 Ford.
His opinion: Ford rides quieter.

Ford's Quiet Man here he discusses a '66 Ford 4 Door LTD with Jean-Pierre Filipinetti at the Gallex which houses the famed Filipinetti collection of over 100 classic autos.

"It's incredible," said M. Filipinetti, "the Ford is quieter."

"The quiet, it's tremendous," continued M. Filipinetti, "it's incredible that you could build a car so luxurious as this at such a price." Ford's amazing quietness is the result of deep-down quality and engineering excellence.

And Ford for '66 offers more engineering magic; Optional new Stereo-Sonic Tape System that turns your Ford into a concert hall. Exclusive Magic Doorgate for wagons swings out like a door for people and dog down.

like a tailgate for cargo. A Safety/Convenience Control Panel option—one button locks all doors, lights warn when fuel's low or a door's ajar, and remind you to fasten seat belts. Quiet test a '66 Ford soon.

IS OUR BIRTHDAY

On February 13, 1966, The Deposit Bank of Carlisle, Kentucky, will begin its 100th year of service to Nicholas County and Central Kentucky. A resume of its history is as follows:

It was during the Civil War, some 100 years ago that B. F. Adair owned the entire block, or that section of Carlisle, Kentucky, on which is now located the homes of William Jones. The First Chairman of the Board was the late Dr. Peter DeAtley. Mrs. Howard Dorsey, Mrs. H. H. Holbrook and Mayor William Power. Mr. Adair, who was the grandfather of Evelyn Ross, had his residence on the lot where the home of William Jones now is located.

News of the war between the States came to the citizens of Carlisle and Nicholas County very slowly and most inadequately due to the lack of means of communication, something we now take for granted. Stagecoach and/or horseback riders regularly brought newspapers from Lexington, Paris and sometimes Louisville and Cincinnati. The citizens of city and county were very interested in the events of the war, there being menfolk from the county fighting both in the Armies of the Union and the Confederacy. Large groups of citizens would gather on the premises of Mr. Adair, where some gentlemen with a good voice would read the newspapers to them. Horses and buggies, it is related, were hitched about the grounds. The procedure continued almost daily, for months and years.

It was during these frequent assemblages that talk of a Bank for Carlisle and Nicholas County was discussed and from the discussions, F. E. Congleton, William Dinamore, B. F. Adair and W. P. Ross, who Bank personnel in 1894 are from left, Horace M. Taylor, Mr. Beck (a customer), Frank E. Congleton, E. L. Harris, John D. Howell and Henry M. Potts.

The Deposit Bank of Carlisle, Kentucky, began business in the building located on Locust Street, in Carlisle, now partially occupied by Robert's Beauty Shoppe. Mr. W. P. Ross maintained a law office on the second floor of the same building and later Innes B. Ross, a son, became associated with him as a lawyer. The bank and law office remained in the same building until about 1900 when the present Deposit Bank Building was erected. The second floor of the present bank building has been occupied by attorneys, physicians and dentists, to date, the firm of Hanson Kennedy and John I. Williamson were in the law offices for a few years. They were followed by Innes B. Ross, who moved his law office into the building about 1904, where he remained until his death in 1944. Roger C. Womack now maintains his law office there. Miss Jimmie Henry was employed by Innes B. Ross as his legal secretary in 1908. She has occupied an office on the second floor of the bank building since the death of Mr. Ross, maintaining as her own business an insurance agency, public stenographer, Notary Public, tax consultant. Secretary of the Carlisle Cemetery Company and other duties. Dr. S. F. Hutchins practiced dentistry on the second floor from 1919 until his retirement in 1941. Dr. C. S. Nash had first used the office, later occupied by Dr. Hutchings, for the general practice of medicine. A. T. Gardner had a jewelry shop in the new building at the Locust Street entrance as did Mrs. Amelia Lee, who operated a millinery shop. The Deposit Bank remodeled its banking facilities in 1924 and that arrangement remained, with the addition of furniture and equipment among the outstanding citizens of Carlisle and Nicholas County, and with the knowledge that today is born of the wisdom of yesterday and faith in tomorrow, associated themselves together for the purpose of and did organize on the 13th day of February, 1866 a strong bank which was given the name of The Deposit Bank of Carlisle, Kentucky.

On January 7, 1896, the Articles of Incorporation were amended for the first time with P. S. Adair, Julia Neal, B. S. Rogers, Alton Boardman, J. Taylor Crockett, James T. Crockett, Belle Crockett, E. G. Clay, S. J. Reed, J. D. Allen, William F. Ewalt, W. H. Fritts, W. T. Henry, Anna S. Hinton, Fannie A. Hays, Sallie A. Hall, Sallie Jefferson, W. M. Eason, S. W. Mathers, Miss Mary Magowan, Mary J. Parks, I. H. Piper, S. A. Rice, E. S. Piper, W. P. Ross, G. S. Savage, A. E. Royce, Sue M. Talbot, John N. Ross, T. P. Ruteman, Robert A. Thompson, C. C. Caldwell, James M. Alexander, Elijah D. Foster, Mrs. Hattie Washburne, Caroline Kennedy, Hanson Kennedy, Mrs. R. L. Turman, H. M. Taylor, F. E. Congleton and Mary F. Hampton listed as stockholders.

The Directors of the Deposit Bank at the present time are: J. W. Parker, Chairman; Arthur B. Blakely, F. E. Congleton, W. B. Parker and Roger C. Womack, who is the Secretary of the Board; Charles Watkins, Anna Mae Davis, Lenore Ritchie Anderson, Wanda Hamm, Pansy King and Mary D. Judge are bank employees.

The Deposit Bank of Carlisle, Kentucky, is now organized with Mr. Sterling B. Blake, P. President; W. B. Parker, Vice President; Charles K. Watkins, Cashier; Anna Mae Davis, Assistant Cashier; Lenore R. Anderson, Wanda Hamm, Pansy King and Mary D. Judge as bookkeepers.

The tenants of the building are Roger C. Womack, Attorney; Miss Jimmie Henry, Insurance Agency; Riggs and Sparks, Dentists; Duncan Electric Shop (Gano and William); and The Production Credit Association; Ted Crockett, Manager. The Deposit Bank of Carlisle, Kentucky, has been a friendly, home-like place bank. It has served the parents, grand-parents and great-parents of the present generation these many years and will continue to serve in its usual friendly but conservative and solid manner, utilizing all facets of modern and up to date banking.
